In 1890, the Brooklyn Dodgers (or Bridegrooms, as they were known) joined the National League and captured their first pennant. That initial team gave a preview of what the Dodgers would stand for over the next 100 years: a winning tradition.

The Dodgers have won nearly 8,000 games in their long and illustrious history. They have captured six World Championships, 21 N.L. pennants, seven N.L. Western Division titles and have over 40 members in the Hall of Fame. More than 1,200 players have worn the Dodger uniform and they have been led by 20 managers.

But the Dodgers are more than just a baseball team. They are a national institution and one of the most recognizable organizations in professional sports. The Dodger legacy knows no boundaries.

During the 1990 Centennial season, the Dodgers will celebrate 100 years of baseball. Take a look back at the 10 decades of Dodger baseball and relive the history through its great names and memories.

1890 Brooklyn's emergence into the National League in 1890 began on a positive note, as the team nicknamed the "Bridegrooms" won the championship with an 86-43 record. It was the first of 21 National League pennants that the Dodgers have won in the last century.

The moniker "Bridegrooms" was attached to the 1890 ballclub because seven of the players got married around the same time in 1888. The manager that first season was William "Gunner" McGunnigle. But, despite the success of the Bridegrooms, McGunnigle didn't last past that initial year and the team paraded through six different managers before the end of the decade. The skippers included John Montgomery Ward (1891-92), Dave Foutz (1893-96), William Barnie (1897-98), Mike Griffin (1898), Charles H. Ebbets (1898) and Ned Hanlon (1899-1905).

Although from the start, the term "Trolley Dodgers" was attached to the Brooklyn ballclub because of the complex maze of trolley cars that weaved its way through the borough of Brooklyn, eventually the name was shortened to just "Dodgers." But during the decade of the 1890s, the nickname Bridegrooms was popular as were Ward's Wonders, Foutz's Fillies and Hanlon's Superbas.

From 1890-99, the Dodgers sandwiched pennant-winning teams around one third place finish, two fifth places, three sixth places, one ninth place and one 10th place.

Baseball was not new to Brooklyn, which had fielded a team as early as 1849. Charles Byrne, president of the Brooklyn club which started in the Interstate League and moved into the American Association, built Washington Park on the approximate site where George Washington's Continental Army had fought the Battle of Long Island. The Dodgers of 1890 transferred to the National League from the American Association, where they had won the 1889 pennant.

Under Hanlon, who joined the Dodgers from Baltimore, the team brought stars to Brooklyn including "Wee" Willie Keeler, Hughie Jennings and Joe Kelley. Sports-writers dubbed the team "Hanlon's Superbas" because of a popular vaudeville troupe of the same name. Brooklyn won the 1899 title under Hanlon, the first of two consecutive pennant winners.

Brooklyn-born Keeler, famous for the saying, "I hit 'em where they ain't," had great bat control and was an adroit bunter. He compiled a .345 career batting average, fifth best all-time in baseball. The 5'4" Hall of Famer had a league-leading 140 runs scored in 1899.

First decade stars also included pitcher "Brickyard" Kennedy, who won 176 games; pitcher Tom Lovett, who won 30 games in 1890 (the only Dodger pitcher to record 30 wins in a season); outfielder Tom "Oyster" Burns, who batted .300 from 1890-95 and led the league with 128 RBI in 1890; Mike Griffin, who batted over .300 in an eight-year period (1891-98) before managing; first baseman Dan Brouthers, who was the club's first batting champion with a .335 average in 1892; shortstop Tommy Corcoran, who batted .300 with 173 hits in 1894; and first baseman Candy LaChance, who hit .290 for six seasons (1893-98).

Great Moments of the 1890s: Dodgers play their first N.L. game vs. the Braves in 1890...Dodgers win a tripleheader vs. the Pirates in 1890...Hub Collins' 148 runs in 1890, still a Dodger record.

The turn of the century was marked by the Dodgers' second consecutive pennant-winning team under Manager Ned Hanlon. The Dodgers won 82 games in 1900 and with new stars like Joe McGinnity joining forces with "Wee" Willie Keeler, Hughie Jennings, Joe Kelley, Bill Dahlen, Fielder Jones and Doc Casey, the decade got off to a flying start.

In 1900, the league was pared from 12 teams to eight, with Baltimore, Cleveland, Louisville and Washington dropping out. Baltimore transplant McGinnity, nicknamed "Iron Man" because of his ability to pitch in both ends of a doubleheader, was 29-9 for the ballclub. He once won five games in six days.

Beginning in 1901, the newly-formed American League began taking shape, luring top-notch talent from the National League. With a "raided" roster, Hanlon watched the Brooklyn foundation crack. Stars like McGinnity departed, as did Keeler, Jones, Kelley, Tom Daly and "Wild" Bill Donovan. It would not be until 1916 that the Dodgers would again be perched above their National League competitors.

In 1901, Brooklyn slipped to third place and managed a second place finish in 1902. But they hit rock bottom in Hanlon's final season of 1905 with an eighth place finish, 56 1/2 games behind New York.

In 1903, Jimmy Sheckard became Brooklyn's first home run champion, as he led the league with nine. He also stole 67 bases to tie for the league lead.

Managers Patsy Donovan (1906-08) and Harry Lumley (1909) closed out the decade with disappointing seasons.

One of the emerging stars of the period, although his performance was largely overshadowed by the record of the times, was pitcher "Nap" Rucker. Dubbed "Napoleon" by Grantland Rice, George Rucker was a mainstay of the pitching staff from 1907-16. He had played on the same South Atlantic League (Class C) team as Ty Cobb, which was considered the best club ever assembled at that level. The left-hander won 15, 17 and 13 games in his first three seasons with the Dodgers and would wind up pitching in the 1916 World Series in his final season.

Another Dodger would emerge in the last year of the decade and would be a fixture for years to come – Zack Wheat, who played in more games than any other Dodger (2,322).

The ownership of the Brooklyn ballclub was in a state of flux, as Charles Ebbets had become a 24-year-old employee of the original triumvirate of owners – Charles Byrne, Joseph Doyle and Ferdinand Abell. Ebbets, who toiled at almost every aspect of baseball management, from selling peanuts, scorecards and tickets to working as Byrne's assistant in the front office, used every opportunity to purchase even a small amount of stock in the team. He eventually held nearly 10 percent of the stock and after Byrne died in 1897, he managed to get elected as club president.

Then in a wild plan, Ebbets and Baltimore owner Harry Von der Horst became partners and, while Von der Horst held 30 percent ownership of the Dodgers, Ebbets in exchange received Manager Ned Hanlon and several of Baltimore's top stars, including Keeler, Jennings, McGinnity, Kelley, Jones, Dahlen and Donovan.

But when things turned for the worse in early 1900, Von der Horst wanted to sell his stock and Ebbets managed to purchase it to become owner of the club. Immediately, he dreamed of expanding to a larger facility than Washington Park to accommodate the large crowds that were attending the Dodger games against the rivals from New York. Despite finding a site for a new field, Ebbets would have to wait until the next decade for funding of the project.

Great Moments of the 1900s: Brooklyn's National League pennant in 1900...Pitcher Joe McGinnity goes 29-9 in 1900...Jimmy Sheckard hits a Dodger record three triples in 1901 vs. Philadelphia...Sheckard hits grand slams on consecutive days...Dodgers score a team record 25 runs vs. Cincinnati...Nap Rucker's no-hitter in 1908.

A decade of changes was marked by the Dodgers move to a new home park, Ebbets Field, and the managerial era of Wilbert Robinson. "Uncle Robbie" arrived on the scene in 1914 and would stay through 1931. He made such an impact on the team and city that the Brooklyn ballclub was known as the "Robins" during this period.

The drought of finishing below first place ended this decade, as the 1916 club won the National League pennant and played in its first true World Series. One of the players on this team was Casey Stengel. Although the Dodgers (or Robins) fell to the Boston Red Sox in the 1916 World Series, Stengel was the team's leading hitter with a .364 mark. Right-handed pitcher Jeff Pfeffer won 25 games that season for the 94-60 club.

In Game 2 of the Series, the Dodgers lost to a pitcher named Ruth—Babe Ruth, that is, who won a 2-1, 14-inning decision. After allowing a first-inning inside-the-park home run to Hy Myers, Ruth hurled 13 consecutive scoreless innings.

In 1913, Jake Daubert became the first Dodger to win Most Valuable Player honors, as he batted a league-high .350. First baseman Daubert won the N.L. batting title again in 1914 with a .329 mark.

With the rivalry between Brooklynites and Manhattanites heating up, the Dodgers and Giants feud began to boil. Robinson and Giants' Manager John McGraw had no love loss and took regular jabs at each other in the press. As a result, when the teams met at either site in New York, fans packed the fields and were extremely vocal.

Dodger owner Charles Ebbets, recognizing that the club could no longer survive in the confines of Washington Park, purchased land in Flatbush bordered by Bedford Avenue, Sullivan Street, Franklin Avenue and Montgomery Street. Although he originally purchased most of the property in 1908, Ebbets was in a pinch for money for the construction of the field and had to sell 50 percent of the club's stock to new partners, Ed McKeever and Steve McKeever. As a result of the partnership, the Brooklyn Baseball Club, Inc. was formed and Ebbets remained president, while the Ebbets-McKeever Exhibition Company was run by Ed McKeever.

After a struggle to secure all of the land on the site, Ebbets broke ground on the field on March 4, 1912. A group of sports editors suggested to Ebbets that the field should not be called Washington Park, but "Ebbets Field." The Dodgers played an exhibition game against New York on April 5 in the unofficial opening of the field. On April 9, 1913 the Dodgers dedicated 18,000-seat Ebbets Field in a game against the Phillies.

In 1917, the United States declared war on Germany just five days prior to the opening of the season and baseball owners asked the government to give them guidance on the status of the season. When no reply came from the nation's capital, the season proceeded. Fans were as responsive and supportive as usual. However, the Dodgers took the elevator from the top spot in 1916 plunging to seventh place in 1917.

With some players going to war beginning in 1917, the ballclub had a different look. By 1918, the season was curtailed because of the war.

Top players of the decade included George Cutshaw, a fine fielding second baseman; short-stop Ivy Olson, who led the league in hits with 164 in 1919; Otto Miller, who became a mainstay as Brooklyn's catcher from 1912-22; outfielder Zack Wheat, a solid .300 hitter who paced the N.L. in 1918 with a .335 mark; Stengel, who was popular with Brooklyn fans and, after being traded to Pittsburgh, is remembered for returning to Ebbets Field in 1918, where he acknowledged the crowd and a sparrow flew out from beneath his cap; and outfielder Myers, who had 73 RBI to lead the N.L. in 1919.

Great Moments of the 1910s: Ebbets Field opens in 1913... Daubert becomes the first Dodger to be named MVP in 1913... Daubert wins consecutive batting titles in 1913 and 1914... Cutshaw has six hits in a 1914 game, the first Dodger to accomplish that feat... Wheat's 29-game hitting streak in 1916... Dodgers appear in the World Series for the first time in 1916... Ed Konetchy's Dodger record of 10 consecutive hits in 1919.

The Dodger decade of the 1920s got off to a roaring start with a National League pennant in 1920, but over the next nine years, Brooklyn could manage only one other season better than fifth place.

Just as 1916 produced an unexpected league championship under Manager Wilbert Robinson, the success of the 1920 season was equally surprising.

Pitcher Burleigh Grimes burst on the scene in 1918 and made his presence felt in 1920 with a 23-11 record for a league-leading .676 winning percentage. The Dodgers had to squelch a challenge by the Giants late in the season to garner the N.L. flag. In a best-of-nine World Series against the Cleveland Indians, the Dodgers won two of the first three games, only to drop four straight and bow out.

The 1920 World Series will also be remembered for producing the first and only unassisted triple play in Series history. In the fifth game, Dodger pitcher Clarence Mitchell lined a shot to Cleveland's Billy Wambsganss with Pete Kilduff on second base and Otto Miller on first. Wambsganss speared the liner to the right of the bag, stepped on the base to double up Kilduff and tagged Miller, who was running with the shot and was nearly at second base on the play.

The longest game in Dodger history was played on May 1, 1920 when the Dodgers were in Boston to play the Braves. The game was played to a 26-inning, 1-1 tie. What made it so unique was that both starting pitchers – Leon Cadore for Brooklyn and Joe Oeschger for the Braves – each went the distance! Cadore yielded 15 hits, while the Dodgers had nine before darkness halted play.

In 1921, the fifth place Dodgers were led by Grimes, who had an N.L. leading 22 wins and 136 strikeouts. "Ol' Stubblebeard," as Grimes was known, won 21 or more games four times as a Dodger.

A great character arrived in training camp in 1922, as pitcher Clarence Arthur "Dazzy" Vance was just what the Dodgers needed. Born on March 4, 1891, the 31-year-old Vance pitched 11 seasons for the Dodgers, winning in double figures all but one year. The right-hander won a league-leading 28 games in 1924 and 22 games in 1925.

He was the N.L. strikeout leader for seven consecutive seasons (1922-28) and was twice the ERA champion in the decade (1924 and '28). The 1922 and 1923 seasons were nearly repeat performances and neither were a pretty sight, as the Dodgers wound up in sixth place in succession. But, in 1924, Uncle Robbie's troops put on a furious run at the pennant, moving from 12 games back to first place in September, eventually losing to the Giants by a game and a half.

In 1925, Brooklyn owner Charles Ebbets, at age 66, was taken ill after returning from Clearwater, FL in the spring. He died on the morning of April 18 in New York. The Dodgers were playing the Giants at Ebbets Field that day to begin a three-game series. The games went on as scheduled because as Robinson said, "Charley wouldn't want anybody to miss a Giant-Brooklyn series just because he died." Now acting president Ed McKeever was in charge. The day of Ebbets' funeral was cold and windy. McKeever caught a cold at the grave site that very day. He was stricken with pneumonia and within a week he, too, was dead.

Grief stricken, the Brooklyn ballclub gathered itself around Steve McKeever and Manager Robinson and the new directors to elect a president. Robbie was selected for the job, while continuing to manage as well.

Robbie's teams struggled for the balance of the decade, finishing in sixth place five consecutive seasons. Floyd Caves "Babe" Herman joined the Dodgers in 1926 as a first baseman, but moved to the outfield to allow Del Bissonette a spot in the lineup. Herman batted over .300 in five of the six seasons he was with Brooklyn initially. He would return to close out his career in 1945. The incredible Zack Wheat would hit over .320 in six straight seasons before an injury slowed him down at age 40 and he batted .290.

Great Moments of the 1920s: Grimes throws the first World Series shutout by a Dodger in 1920 ... Harry Shriver in 1924 becomes the first major leaguer to throw a shutout in his major league debut ... 1924 Dodgers win a club record 15 consecutive games.

No era in Dodger history was as wild and wacky as the 1930s. Unfortunately, the depression years were depressing for the organization as no pennants were won this decade. Early in this era the style of play led Brooklyn's teams to be known as the "Daffiness Dodgers."

A forerunner of the frustration for Brooklyn fans could be summed up in the season of 1930. The Robins made quite a stretch drive for the pennant, taking over first place with 15 straight wins and were in the top spot for 75 days, but they dropped a crucial three-game series to the Cardinals at Ebbets Field and wound up in fourth place by six games.

This decade was marked by changes in baseball – the development of the farm system, the first night baseball game and the first broadcasts on television.

The "Uncle Robbie" period faded after the 1931 season, but his legacy remains as the winningest manager in Brooklyn Dodger history with 1,375 victories in 18 seasons. Four different managers would parade through the decade, including Max Carey (1932-33), Casey Stengel (1934-36), Burleigh Grimes (1937-38) and Leo Durocher (1939-46, '48).

With Robinson's departure, former Dodger player Max Carey took over the reins, but the results in 1932 and '33 were less than satisfactory and Stengel replaced Carey.

It was in February of 1934, prior to Carey's departure, that New York Giants' Manager Bill Terry was asked what he thought of Brooklyn's chances in the pennant race that season. He answered, "Brooklyn? Is Brooklyn still in the league?" That statement would come back to haunt Terry on the last two days of the season as the Giants were in a neck-and-neck race with the Cardinals for the pennant. The Dodgers proved they were indeed still in the league as they managed to knock the Giants on their letters in the final series of the season and the Cardinals became champions of the league.

After three sub-par seasons, Stengel was replaced as manager in favor of "Ol' Stubblebeard" Burleigh Grimes, the former Dodger pitching great. In 1937, the Dodgers finished sixth under Grimes 331/2 games out. On January 19, 1938 innovative Larry MacPhail was hired as the team's executive vice president to rebuild the Dodgers. While with Cincinnati, MacPhail had introduced night baseball to the major leagues at Crosley Field. In March of 1938, Steve McKeever died and his stock went to his daughter, Mrs. Marie Mulvey.

MacPhail made needed improvements at Ebbets Field and then hired Red Barber (who had been Cincinnati's broadcaster) to come to Brooklyn for the 1939 season, effectively ending an agreement among the three New York clubs prohibiting radio broadcasts. The first televised game was on August 26, 1939 when the first game of the Cincinnati at Brooklyn doubleheader was aired.

The introduction of night baseball to Brooklyn was on June 15, 1938 and later that year MacPhail signed Babe Ruth as a first base coach. Johnny Vander Meer pitched his second straight no-hit game the night the lights went on in Ebbets Field. Ruth, 43, even suited up for some exhibition games that season and took batting practice with the club.

One of MacPhail's initial acquisitions was purchasing first baseman Dolph Camilli from Philadelphia. Camilli made an immediate impact on the 1938 and '39 clubs with a total of 50 HRs and 204 RBI.

In the decade, second baseman Tony Cuccinello became the first Dodger ever to be selected for an All-Star Game in 1933. Babe Herman, who typified the decade of the "Daffy Dodgers," set numerous records, including a .393 batting average in 1930. Outfielder Lefty O'Doul earned a National League batting title with a .368 average in 1932. Other Dodger notables included pitcher Van Lingle Mungo, who was twice an 18-game winner; catcher Al Lopez, who hit .279 in more than 700 games and later became a Hall of Fame manager; and third baseman Cookie Lavagetto, who averaged .275 for seven seasons.

Great Moments of the 1930s: Herman's 1930 season...Herman hits for the cycle twice in 1931...Lavagetto reaches base seven consecutive times in a 1939 game vs. Philadelphia.

The 1940s were the beginnings of the Dodgers' emergence as a powerhouse and an historical first as Brooklyn broke baseball's color line with the signing of Jackie Robinson.

Under the guidance of Leo Durocher, who became the Dodger manager in 1939, the Dodgers in 1941 won their first National League pennant in 21 years with a 100-54 record and played the first of their classic World Series confrontations against the New York Yankees.

Outfielder Pete Reiser was dynamite in 1941. Reiser led the league in batting, runs scored, total bases, slugging percentage and triples, while teammate Dolph Camilli topped the league in home runs and RBI and was honored as the National League MVP. Whit Wyatt and Kirby Higbe paced the pitching staff with 22 victories apiece.

The Dodgers in 1942 won four more games than the previous year, but finished second to the St. Louis Cardinals.

Over the next three years, the Dodgers finished third, seventh and third respectively. During World War II, many Dodger players were called to military duty.

With the end of the war in 1945, Brooklyn came back in 1946 and put together a big season going 96-60 and finished tied for first with the St. Louis Cardinals. The two teams played in the first-ever playoff series, but it was not a happy one for the Dodgers, as the Cardinals won the pennant and went on to the World Championship.

No playoff series was necessary in 1947 as the Dodgers won the National League pennant by five games over the Cardinals. That was not the only big story for the Dodgers in 1947. Jackie Robinson became the first black player ever to play professional baseball. In 1945, Robinson had signed a professional contract with Dodger President and General Manager Branch Rickey. In 1946, Robinson endured his first year of pro ball playing for the Dodgers' minor league affiliate, the Montreal Royals.

In 1947, when Rickey felt the timing was right, Robinson was given an opportunity with Brooklyn. Rickey's thorough research to find an exceptional black player was evident in his quote, "I'm looking for a ballplayer with guts enough not to fight back." He found his man in Robinson who faced all forms of abuse and pressure. The more Robinson was taunted and threatened, the more he let his performance on the field speak for him. Overcoming the critics and the prejudice, Robinson became one of the great stars in the game, becoming the first black player elected to the Hall of Fame. In his first season, Robinson hit .297, scored 125 runs and stole 29 bases en route to being Major League Rookie of the Year.

In the 1947 World Series, the Dodgers fell to the Yankees in seven games, but there were two memorable moments for the Dodgers: Cookie Lavagetto breaking up Bill Bevens' no-hitter in the ninth inning of Game 4 with a game-winning two-run double to give the Dodgers a 3-2 victory; and Al Gionfriddo's great catch of a Joe DiMaggio ball which preserved an 8-6 victory in Game 6.

Leo Durocher returned as manager of the Dodgers in 1948 after being suspended for the 1947 season. Durocher, though, lasted only half the season and was replaced by Burt Shotton.

Shotton guided the Dodgers in 1949 to their third pennant of the decade. Robinson was named the N.L. Most Valuable Player and pitcher Don Newcombe, N.L. Rookie of the Year. The third time wasn't a charm for the Dodgers as the Yankees captured another World Championship.

Great Moments of the 1940s: Catcher Mickey Owen's .995 fielding percentage in 1941, including a still standing 476 consecutive chances without an error...Joe "Ducky" Medwick's three straight seasons of batting .300 or better (1940-42)...Dixie Walker, known as the "People's Cherce" wins the N.L. batting title in 1944 with a .357 mark; Walker in nine years with the Dodgers had a .311 batting average...Eddie Stanky draws a National League record 148 walks in 1945...The Dodgers began their long association with Vero Beach as their spring training facility in 1948.

In the 1950s, the Brooklyn Dodgers became the Los Angeles Dodgers as the team made its historic move to the West in 1958. Despite the change in location, the Dodgers dominated the National League, winning five National League pennants (1952, 1953, 1955, 1956 and 1959) and two World Championships (1955 and 1959).

In eight of the 10 years, the Dodgers never finished lower than second while winning 913 games, the most wins in a decade in Dodger history.

As the decade started, the Dodgers had a new president in Walter O'Malley. O'Malley was appointed as the club's attorney in 1941 and moved up the ladder. In October of 1950, O'Malley became the president and chief stockholder of the Dodgers, a position he held for 20 years.

O'Malley saw his team take back-to-back pennants in 1952 and 1953 under Manager Charlie Dressen. In 1953, the Dodgers won a team-record 105 games with the well-known "Boys of Summer." Some of the great ones included Jackie Robinson, Pee Wee Reese, Roy Campanella, Gil Hodges, Carl Furillo, Don Newcombe, Carl Erskine, Jim Gilliam, Duke Snider, Preacher Roe and Clem Labine.

Walter Alston became manager in 1954 and guided the Dodgers for 23 seasons, putting together a great list of achievements: 2,042 wins, four World Championships, seven N.L. pennants, nine N.L. All-Star appearances and a Hall of Fame induction in 1983.

In 1955, the Dodgers defeated the Yankees and won their first-ever World Championship in a seven-game World Series. The Dodgers took Game 7 in Yankee Stadium as World Series MVP Johnny Podres shut out the Yankees, 2-0.

The Dodgers repeated as National League champions in 1956 and once again faced the Yankees. In another heart-stopping Series, the Yankees prevailed in seven games.

Dodger right-hander Don Newcombe made baseball history in 1956 when he became the first player to win Cy Young and MVP awards in the same season (27-7 mark).

As the 1957 season rolled around, the team on the field was overshadowed by the publicity of the team and its possible move to the West Coast. Since the early part of the decade, O'Malley wanted a more modern stadium for his ballclub in Brooklyn. New York officials didn't want to provide O'Malley with the land he wanted in Brooklyn.

On October 8, 1957, O'Malley announced that the Dodgers were moving to Los Angeles, after playing 68 seasons in Brooklyn. On April 18, 1958, the Dodgers played their first game in Los Angeles, defeating the Giants 6-5 before 78,672 fans at the Coliseum.

In their final season of the decade, the Dodgers, a team in transition, finished in a first place tie with the Milwaukee Braves. Two days later, the Dodgers had the N.L. pennant as they swept the Braves in a best-of-three playoff.

Appearing in their fifth World Series of the '50s, the Dodgers faced the Chicago White Sox. Using timely hitting and outstanding pitching, the Dodgers brought their first championship to Los Angeles as they bested the Sox in six games. Larry Sherry was impressive, winning two games and saving two, earning him MVP honors. Charlie Neal and Chuck Essegian had two homers apiece.

Great Moments of the 1950s: Broadcaster Vin Scully begins his long association with the Dodgers in 1950, joining Hall of Famer Red Barber in the booth...Hodges' four homers in a game in '50...Executive Vice President Buzzie Bavasi and V.P. and Director of Minor League Operations Fresco Thompson joined the Dodgers in 1951 and began building the great teams of the 1950s and '60s...Public Relations and promotions genius Arthur E. "Red" Patterson also began his long association with the Dodgers...Snider hits 40 or more homers in five straight seasons (1953-57)...Erskine's two no-hitters ('52 and '56)...Sandy Amoros' catch in the 1955 World Series...Campanella's three MVP awards and the salute to him at the Coliseum in 1959...Koufax's 18 strikeouts vs. the Giants in '59...Wally Moon's famous "Moon Shots" in the Coliseum.

The 1960s marked the first full decade of the Los Angeles Dodgers. The location changed, but the results didn't as the Dodgers won two World Series (1963 and 1965), three National League pennants (1963, 1965 and 1966) and just missed a fourth in 1962.

In 1962, Walter O'Malley finally had the stadium he had been seeking for so many years. After four seasons at the Los Angeles Coliseum, the Dodgers moved into their new home, Dodger Stadium. The 56,000-seat stadium opened on April 10, 1962 as the Dodgers faced the Cincinnati Reds. The new accommodations did wonders for the team as they won an L.A. record 102 games and tied the San Francisco Giants for first in the National League. The two teams squared off in a best-of-three playoff series with the Giants prevailing two games to one.

Individually, it was a successful year as well. Don Drysdale won the Cy Young; Maury Wills was the MVP and had a then-major league record of 104 stolen bases; Tommy Davis won the league batting title and led the majors with 153 RBI; and Sandy Koufax led the N.L. in ERA.

The Dodgers didn't miss another opportunity in 1963 as they won the National League pennant. Winning 19 games in the final month of the season, the Dodgers staved off their challengers. Once again the Dodgers had to face the mighty New York Yankees in the World Series. The boys in blue stunned the Bronx Bombers, sweeping them in four games, while holding the potent Yankee offense to just four runs.

Sandy Koufax was the key for the team's championship year. The overpowering left-hander, who was later named Player of the Decade, was 25-5 with a 1.88 ERA and 306 strikeouts. He was selected Most Valuable Player and Cy Young Award winner, while also garnering World Series MVP honors and was named to the All-Star team.

Two years later, 1965, the Dodgers were once again World Champions. After winning the pennant with a 97-65 record, the Dodgers won a hard-fought seven-game World Series over the Minnesota Twins. Koufax once again was masterful in '65 as he posted two complete game victories in the Series, including a 2-0 shutout in Game 7.

The Dodgers followed up in 1966 with another big year as they won another National League pennant.

Along with Koufax, there were many great Dodger pitchers of this decade. Drysdale, who won 158 games, was selected for the All-Star team seven times in the 1960s and won some key World Series games. Johnny Podres continued his outstanding pitching in the '60s with 68 more victories, including an impressive 18-5 record in 1961. Ron Perranoski was the Dodger bullpen stopper compiling 101 saves and 54 wins with the Dodgers from 1961-67. In the championship year of 1963, he was nearly unbeatable going 16-3 with 21 saves and a 1.67 ERA.

Even though pitching was the mainstay of this team in the '60s, the Dodgers did produce some outstanding hitters. Tommy Davis won two consecutive batting titles in 1962 and 1963 and had a lifetime batting average of .304 with the Dodgers. The other Davis, Willie, enjoyed 14 great seasons with the Dodgers. The all-time L.A. Dodger leader in many offensive categories, Willie Davis put together a Dodger record 31-game hitting streak in 1969. Six-foot-seven Frank Howard provided the sock for the Dodgers. Howard, between 1960-1964 hit 121 homers including 31 in 1962.

John Roseboro, who joined the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1957, played in three World Series during the 1960s (catching in each game) and was a five-time All-Star in his career.

After working as director of scouting for the Dodgers, Al Campanis was named vice president, player personnel in December of 1968. Campanis held that post until 1987. During his tenure, the Dodgers won one World Championship, four N.L. pennants and six Western Division titles.

Great Moments of the 1960s: Koufax's 18 strikeouts in 1962 game vs. Cubs...Koufax's perfect game in 1965...Drysdale's 58 consecutive scoreless inning streak in 1968...Ted Sizemore's Rookie of the Year season in 1969.

The Los Angeles Dodgers of the 1970s were a team of winners. Three National League pennants and three appearances in the World Series (1974, 1977 and 1978) along with 910 victories (second best decade in Dodger history) are certainly enough credentials for a successful decade.

Peter O'Malley was named club president on March 17, 1970 and his father, Walter O'Malley, assumed the position of chairman of the board.

In the 1970s, no Dodger team ever finished lower than third. In 1971, the Dodgers finished just one game behind division winner Cincinnati. But in 1974, the Dodgers reached the top, winning the division as they posted 102 wins, the most by a Dodger team since 1962. They beat the Pirates in four games and earned a trip to the Fall Classic for the first time in eight years.

After 23 years, Hall of Fame Manager Walter Alston retired and handed over the reins to Tommy Lasorda. Lasorda proceeded in his initial two seasons, 1977 and 1978, to win National League pennants becoming only the second National League manager to achieve that feat. His troops defeated the Philadelphia Phillies both times in the League Championship Series.

During this era, the Dodgers had the infield of first baseman Steve Garvey, second baseman Davey Lopes, shortstop Bill Russell and third baseman Ron Cey. This fabulous foursome started together in 1973 and were the foundation of the Dodger teams of this decade. They would stay as a unit until 1981, making them the longest standing infield ever in baseball and arguably one of the best.

In 1977, the Dodgers made history when four members of that team hit 30 or more home runs: Garvey (33), Reggie Smith (32), Cey (30) and Dusty Baker (30).

Behind the plate, Steve Yeager was a sign of durability. One of the best Dodger catchers ever, Yeager played 14 years with the club. He was tri-MVP of the 1981 World Series.

On the mound, the Dodgers had many stars. Don Sutton won 166 games during this decade, including a career-high 21 victories in 1976. In his final four seasons with the Dodgers (1970-73), Claude Osteen won 66 games, while Andy Messersmith in four seasons (1974-76, '79) won 55 games.

Burt Hooton won 112 games in 10 years with the Dodgers, including 71 in the '70s, while Tommy John notched 87 wins and a 2.97 ERA in six years.

Out of the bullpen, the Dodgers looked to Jim Brewer in the early '70s. In 1974, it was Mike Marshall. Marshall won the Cy Young Award, the first relief pitcher ever to do so. The right-hander appeared in a major league record 106 games, had 21 saves, won 15 games and posted a 2.42 ERA. In the late '70s, Charlie Hough and Terry Forster were the aces out of the bullpen.

Great Moments of the 1970s: Bill Singer's no-hitter in 1970... Wes Parker hits for the cycle in 1970... Joe Ferguson's pinpoint throw in the 1974 World Series ... Lopes' consecutive stolen base mark (38) in 1975... Cey's 29 RBI in April, 1977... Russell's game-winning hit in 1978 NLCS... Rookie Bob Welch striking out Reggie Jackson in an unforgettable moment of the 1978 World Series ... Manny Mota's record-breaking pinch-hit in 1979... Rick Sutcliffe's Rookie of the Year season in 1979.

The Dodgers enjoyed one of their most successful decades in the club's history. The Dodgers captured two World Championships (1981 and 1988), four National League Western Division titles (1981, 1983, 1985 and 1988) and won 825 games tying them with the St. Louis Cardinals for the most victories in the National League this decade.

During that time, the Dodgers played under one manager, the ever-popular Tommy Lasorda. The 1990 season will mark Lasorda's 14th as the Dodger skipper. The emotional and effervescent Lasorda has become one of the most successful managers in baseball, having won over 1,000 games in his career.

Lasorda saw his team win a lot in the 1980s. After having the season stopped by a strike for nearly two months in 1981, the Dodgers earned a berth in postseason play and then had to come from behind in all three playoff series (vs. the Astros, Expos and Yankees) to win the title.

In 1983, a young Dodger team won the division, posting 91 victories. Two years later, in 1985, they took the division crown with a decade-high 95 wins.

The 1988 season was the most remarkable of the decade. Picked by some experts to only finish fourth in their division, the Dodgers defied them by capturing the division title and then defeated two heavily favored teams, the New York Mets in the NLCS and the Oakland A's in the World Series to cap off an unforgettable year.

The 1988 World Series gave fans a moment that will long be remembered: Kirk Gibson's dramatic pinch-hit home run in the bottom of the ninth inning of Game 1 to give the Dodgers a 5-4 victory.

Player wise, Fernando Valenzuela may have best exemplified the Dodgers in the '80s. Valenzuela came up late in 1980 and then

"Fernandomania" took the baseball world by storm in 1981, as the left-hander won Cy Young and Rookie of the Year honors while helping the Dodgers to the World Championship. His consistency throughout the decade made him an integral part of the team's success.

During the decade many other great names came to the forefront. Pitcher Orel Hershiser posted double figures in wins in his six years as a starter, including his phenomenal 1988 season in which he captured the Cy Young Award and captivated baseball by pitching a major league record 59 consecutive scoreless innings.

Other significant Dodgers of the 1980s included second baseman Steve Sax, who played seven solid years for the Dodgers; catcher Mike Scioscia, who along with Valenzuela were the only Dodgers to play every year of this decade; infielder-outfielder Pedro Guerrero, who hit 169 home runs and drove in 575 runs; pitcher Bob Welch, who won 103 games and fanned over 1,100 batters; outfielder Ken Landreaux, who enjoyed seven years with the club; and outfielder-first baseman Mike Marshall, who averaged 17 home runs in the last eight seasons.

Great Moments of the 1980s: Jerry Reuss' no-hitter in 1980... 1980 All-Star Game at Dodger Stadium... Three-game sweep of the Astros on the final weekend of the 1980 season... Steve Howe's Rookie of the Year season in 1980 ... Rick Monday's home run in the 1981 NLCS... Valenzuela's rookie season in 1981... Dodger Stadium hosts the 1984 Olympic Baseball competition... Valenzuela's five straight K's in the 1986 All-Star Game... Hershiser's 59 consecutive scoreless inning streak in 1988... Kirk Gibson's fabled home run in the 1988 World Series. He was later named National League MVP.

ALL-TIME DODGER ROSTER

Brooklyn, an incubator of baseball in the pre-Civil War era, had such strong clubs as the Atlantics, Eckfords and Excelsiors and didn't take to professional baseball until joining the American Association in 1884. The AA champs of 1889 had so many newlyweds on the roster they were known as the Bridesgrooms. The club moved into the National League the following year and became dubbed the Trolley Dodgers because of the maze of streetcar tracks in the borough. The name, shortened to Dodgers, became permanent, although during the managerial tenure of Ned Hanlon (1899-1905) it was changed to Superbas, and in Wilbert Robinson's reign (1914-1931) the team was often referred to as the Robins. But the name Dodgers is associated with some of baseball's all-time greats.

DODGERS' ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

The Dodger Alumni Association was instituted in 1983 as a vehicle to unify some 400 former major leaguers who wore the Dodger uniform at some point during their career. Members of the Dodger Alumni Association receive complimentary copies of Dodger Alumni News, the official newsletter of the organization. The Dodgers' Community Services office serves as the clearinghouse for all Dodger Alumni Association requests and correspondence.

Birth date: September 22, 1927Birthplace: Norristown, PAHeight: 5-9 Weight: 180Wife's name and wedding date:Jo, April 14, 1950Children: Laura and Tom Jr.

THE SKIPPER... Slender Dodger skipper Tommy Lasorda is entering his 41st year in the Dodger organization, 14th as manager. He also served as a player (11 years), scout (4 years), minor league manager (8 years) and Dodger coach for four seasons (1973-76).

Lasorda is the "dean" of active major league managers for consecutive service with one team (13 seasons)...his 1989 club finished in 4th place with a 77-83 record...he was the 1989 N.L. All-Star manager at Anaheim...managed his 2,000th major league game on August 2 vs. San Francisco at Dodger Stadium, a 7-4 L.A. win...has won 1,097 major league games as manager of the Dodgers which ranks 33rd on the all-time victory list...he is the third winningest active manager behind Detroit's Sparky Anderson and St. Louis' Whitey Herzog...he trails only Walter Alston and Wilbert Robinson in length of service and wins as Dodger manager (see chart page 22...was named the manager of the Dodgers on Sept. 29, 1976 as Alston announced his retirement after managing the Dodgers for 23 years...Lasorda has a lifetime major league record of 1,097-955 for a winning percentage of .535, which ranks 22nd on the all-time list.

LASORDA LEADS 1988 TEAM TO TITLE... Lasorda guided the underdog Dodgers to the World Championship over the Oakland A's (4-1) and was later named as the N.L. Manager of the Year by the Baseball Writers Association of America, Baseball America and Co-Manager of the Year by The Sporting News...also, guided the Dodgers to a seven-game National League Championship Series triumph over the New York Mets, a team that had defeated the Dodgers 10 out of 11 times during the regular season.

LASORDA WINS 1,000th... Won his 1,000th game as the Dodgers' skipper on Aug. 27, 1988 at Philadelphia, 4-2...became only the 38th manager in Major League Baseball history to record 1,000 victories...joins Detroit's Sparky Anderson and St. Louis' Whitey Herzog as the only active managers to record 1,000 career victories.

THE FRUITS OF VICTORY... In 13 years at the helm of the Dodgers, Lasorda has guided his team to two World Championships, four N.L. pennants and six Western Division titles...he has also finished in second place twice and third place once.

THE FIRST TWO YEARS... In 1977, Lasorda became only the 19th manager in major league history to win a league title in the first year of managing in the majors in 1977...in doing so, Lasorda earned United Press International and Associated Press "Manager of the Year" honors...Lasorda repeated a league title in 1978 and thus became only the second manager in National League history to win league titles in his first two full years of managing. The only other to do it in the N.L. was St. Louis' Gabby Street in 1931. American League managers to accomplish it are Detroit's Mickey Cochrane, Washington's Bucky Harris, New York's Ralph Houk, Detroit's Hughie Jennings and Baltimore's Earl Weaver.

THE 1981 WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP... Lasorda earned Associated Press Manager of the Year honors in 1981 as he guided the Dodgers to a World Championship, the club's first since 1965...the Dodgers had the best record in baseball (36-21) in the first half of the 1981 season and finished with the third best overall mark (63-47).

THE OTHER SEASONS...The 1986 and 1987 seasons were disappointments, as the Dodgers had identical records of 73-89...in 1985, the Dodgers won the West and took a 2-0 lead on St. Louis in the NLCS, only to lose in six games...the 1984 season saw the Dodgers finish a disappointing fourth at 79-83...the Dodgers won the West in 1983, but lost the NLCS in four games to Philadelphia, a team they had beaten 11 times in 12 games during the regular season...in 1982, the Dodgers lost out by one game to Atlanta, while drawing an all-time record 3.6 million fans...the 1980 campaign was one of excitement as well as frustration as the Dodgers battled back in the last three days of the season. Trailing by three games with three to play, the Dodgers swept three from the Houston Astros to force a playoff. The Dodgers lost the playoff game at home to the Astros, 7-1. Only four teams in the majors had a better record than the Dodgers - New York Yankees, Baltimore Orioles, Kansas City Royals and the Astros...riddled by injuries in 1979, the Dodgers suffered through a 36-57 first half that saw the club 17 1/2 games out of first place, only to rebound and finish with a 43-26 record and a .623 second half pace, second only to World Champion Pittsburgh (52-25).

THE MINOR LEAGUES...Lasorda's eight years of managing in the minors found him winning five pennants...he spent his first four seasons with Pocatello and Ogden of the Pioneer League and he had a pennant winning club the last three years...in three seasons as the manager of Spokane of the Pacific Coast League (1969-71) his club never finished lower than third...in 1970 Lasorda was voted the "Minor League Manager of the Year" award by The Sporting News as his team won by 26 games.

LASORDA'S PLAYING CAREER...Tommy's career as a major league pitcher consisted of two seasons with the Dodgers (1954 and 1955) and one year with Kansas City (1956)...he pitched in a total of 26 games and compiled a record of 0-4, all the decisions with Kansas City...the southpaw once struck out 25 batters in a 15-inning game while pitching for the Schenectady Blue Jays against Amsterdam in 1948...he holds the all-time International League record for career wins at 125 for the Montreal Royals.

PERSONAL...Lasorda pitched in four games for the 1955 Dodgers - the first Dodger team ever to win a World Championship...Lasorda and Sparky Anderson were named recipients of the first annual Milton Richman Memorial Award by the Association of Professional Baseball Players of America...Lasorda and his wife, Jo, reside in Fullerton. They have two children, Laura and Tommy Jr.

The "dean" of the Dodgers has been a Dodger coach the past three seasons...was named to the 1989 National League All-Star coaching staff...retired after the 1986 season with the second highest career total of games played in a Dodger uniform - 2,181...only Zack Wheat played in more games as a Dodger (2,322)...Russell played 17 years and 106 days with the Dodgers after joining them in 1969...only one Dodger in the history of the club played longer (Wheat played 18 years - 1909-26) ...had his first managerial experience during the winter of 1988 at Licey in the Dominican Winter League before returning home for family concerns...Russell ranks among the all-time Dodger leaders in all offensive categories but home runs...the 1984 season saw Russell become the all-time Los Angeles Dodger leader in games played as he moved to the top of the list ahead of Willie Davis on June 25 against San Diego at 1,953 and then capped the season off on the last day by playing in his 2,000th game...he was the Dodgers' starter at shortstop on Opening Day, a post he held 11 of 12 years from 1973-84 (he did not start in 1980)...on April 23, 1984, Russell made his first start in center field since Aug. 20, 1971...Russell was one of the greatest clutch hitters in Dodger history, but his greatest accomplishment as "dean" of the club came in the clubhouse in 1983...seemingly headed in reverse and trailing Atlanta by 6 1/2 games, Russell was one of several Dodgers to speak at a team meeting in Cincinnati after a 9-2 defeat on Aug. 10...the meeting brought the Dodgers together as a unit and they eventually rebounded to capture the Western Division title ...the 1982 season was a comeback year for Russell after undergoing winter surgery to remove a piece of plastic inserted in his right index finger as well as to remove a broken bone in his left foot and arthritis under his big toe...went 26 games without an error from Aug. 18-Sept. 15...came on strong after All-Star break, hitting .327 in August, .323 in Sept. - Oct. and .324 in the surge that saw the Dodgers go from 10 1/2 games behind Atlanta to three games ahead in August. .. Russell was voted the starting shortstop for the 1980 All-Star Game at Dodger Stadium, as he was hitting .291 at the break, but struggled after that...he injured his right wrist as he slipped rounding second base Aug. 7 at Atlanta... his season ended prematurely Sept.

12 in Cincinnati, when he suffered a broken index finger on his right hand when struck by a Mike La Coss pitch...break was so serious, pins were inserted in Sept. 14 surgery and were not removed until Jan. 12...prior to the injury, Russell had a string of 47 games without an error (July 17-Sept. 9)...Russell had big years in 1977 and 1978 as the Dodgers won pennants...he turned in his finest year in '78, when he hit .286 and was second on the club with 179 hits...he was the hero in the fourth and deciding game of the LCS, driving in the winning run in the 10th inning to give the Dodgers a 4-3 victory and their second consecutive N.L. pennant...he hit .278 in 1977 and combined on 102 double plays, more than any other N.L. short-stop.

HOME RUNS HIT AT DODGER STADIUM ON THE LOGE LEVEL

Only four players have ever hit a home run on the Loge Level (the second level) at Dodger Stadium. Frank Howard was the first one to do it for the Dodgers in the 1963 World Series. Howard hit it eight rows up in the fourth game on Oct. 6 and it was estimated at 420 feet down the left field line. The second player to do it was the New York Mets' Dave Kingman on June 4, 1976. Kingman hit three home runs in the game and drove in eight runs. He was the first player to hit three home runs in a game against the Dodgers since Willie Stargell did it on June 24, 1965. He later duplicated the feat on May 14, 1978. The third player to reach the Loge Level was Cincinnati's Dave Parker. Parker hit it down the right field line on June 6, 1984. On Sept. 17, 1987 in first game of a doubleheader, Nick Esasky became the fourth player to reach the Loge Level with a solo-shot six rows back down the left field line.

PITCHING NEMESIS OF THE DODGERS

Edward M. Reulbach of the Chicago Cubs defeated the Brooklyn Dodgers nine times without a defeat in 1908. This is a National League record and ties a major league mark for most victories in a season versus one club. Other pitching nemesis of the Dodgers: Philadelphia's Robin Roberts was 6-0 in 1952; Milwaukee Braves' Bob Buhl was 8-1 in 1956; Larry Jaster of the St. Louis Cardinals was 5-0 (all shutouts) in 1966; Chris Short of the Philadelphia Phillies was 5-1 in 1956; Vern Law of the Pittsburgh Pirates was 5-1 in 1960; Juan Marichal was 5-1 for San Francisco in 1969 and Cincinnati's Pat Zachry was 5-1 in 1976. J.R. Richard of the Houston Astros had won 13 consecutive decisions against the Dodgers (2-0 in 1980, 4-0 in 1979, 3-0 in 1978, 2-0 in 1977 and 2-0 in 1976 after losing, 1-0, to Rick Rhoden, June 23, 1976 at Houston).

his first 16 starts and registered a decision in 30 of his 33 starts, tops on the club...he did not have consecutive no-decision starts...pitched his second of four shutouts on June 25 at Cincinnati, allowing 11 hits in the Dodgers' 7-0 win...had a 9-7 record and a 2.47 ERA at the ASB...appeared as a reliever on June 3 at Houston, pitching 7.0 innings in the Dodgers' 22-inning 5-4 loss...recorded eight strikeouts in that relief role, second most in the N.L. by a reliever (Norm Charlton of Cincinnati had 10)...only other relief appearance was on July 9 pitching 2.0 innings at Chicago...after setting the all-time scoreless streak at 59 innings one year earlier, he saw a scoreless streak of a different kind in Aug. and Sept. of 1989...the Dodgers did not score a run with Hershiser on the mound from Aug. 9 to Sept. 13, or 34 straight innings...L.A. would score just six runs in his last 61 innings pitched...he was 1-5 in Sept. but had a 2.30 ERA...pitched 11.0 innings on Oct. 1 at Atlanta and allowed one run in earning his 15th win of the year...the win snapped a career-high seven game losing streak...the 11 innings tied Jose DeLeon of the Cardinals for most innings pitched in a game...had a season-high 10 strikeouts on April 10 at San Francisco, his only 10 strikeout game in 1989...pitched a two-hitter on May 14 at Philadelphia in the Dodgers' 9-0 win...had two three-game win streaks (season high), the last time was July 13-23...he was 2-0 in extra inning games...had four shutouts...was 7-4 in day games with a 1.87 ERA and was 4-1 with a 1.31 ERA on artificial turf...allowed just nine home runs, his lowest total since allowing eight in 1985...led the Dodger pitchers with 14 hits and five extra-base hits.

CAREER NOTES: He has not missed a start since becoming a starter in 1984, making 191 straight starts...he is 98-64 with a 2.69 ERA...he is two shy of 100 career wins...needs 43.0 innings to reach 1,500...struck out Bip Roberts of San Diego on Sept. 24 to record his 1,000th career strikeout...needs 32 strikeouts to move into the Dodger all-time top 10 list, ahead of Burt Hooton...has been named N.L. Pitcher of the Month four times, last time was Sept. of 1988...has been N.L. Player of the Week four times, last time Sept. 26 to Oct. 2, 1988...chosen by members of the Southern California media as the Dodgers' top right-handed pitcher of the 1980s...has struck out 10 or more batters five times...career high is 14 on June 19, 1987 at Houston...has 11 multi-hit games...has allowed two or more home runs in a game 11 times and three in a game twice, the last time on Aug. 10, 1988 at Cincinnati...has pitched two one-hitters (last time July 23, 1985 vs. Pittsburgh), six career two-hitters (last time May 14, 1989 vs. Phil.), five three-hitters (last time April 5, 1988 vs. SF) and six four-hitters (last time Sept. 19 at Houston)...his 2.69 ERA is 4th best on the all-time Dodger list...has been named to the All-Star team the past three years...has won 87 games in the last five years, second only to Frank Viola of the New York Mets with 88...his 59 consecutive inning scoreless streak was voted Associated Press Performance of the Decade.

M.L. Career: 1988 - Finished with a 23-8 record, the most wins by a Dodger since Sandy Koufax won 27 in 1966...his biggest accomplishment came in Sept. when he broke the record that seemed unbreakable, hurling 59 consecutive scoreless innings to beat the mark of 58, achieved by Don Drysdale 20 years earlier...the streak officially started Aug. 30 with four shutout innings at Montreal...he then pitched five successive shutouts over Atlanta (twice), Cincinnati, Houston and San Francisco - and then broke the record Sept. 28 at San Diego with 10 scoreless innings in a game the Dodgers would lose in 16 innings...during the streak, he allowed just 31 hits and 11 walks while fanning 38...he extended the streak to 67 innings unofficially before yielding two runs in the 9th inning vs. the Mets in Game 1 of the NLCS...he was the unanimous winner of the National League Cy Young Award, joining former Dodger recipients Don Newcombe (1956), Don Drysdale (1962), Sandy Koufax (1963, 1965, 1966), Mike Marshall (1974) and Fernando Valenzuela (1981)...he was named to the National League All-Star team for the game in Cincinnati...he was named Sports Illustrated Sportsman of the Year, The Sporting News Player of the Year, Baseball America N.L. Pitcher of the Year, AP Male Athlete of the Year, Pacific Dining Car Co-Dodger of the Year and won the Gold Glove award...he earned positions on the Baseball America, AP, UPI and The Sporting News All-Star teams...his 2.26 ERA ranked third in the N.L. ...he led the league in shutouts (8), and innings pitched (267), tied for the lead in complete games (15) and was 7th in strikeouts (178)...the Dodgers were 26-8 in games Hershiser started...he set personal highs in wins (23), innings pitched (267), complete games (15) and shutouts (8)...was 5-0 in April and won his 6th straight on May 4 vs. Pittsburgh and would pick up a save on May 10 in Chicago in his next appearance...suffered his first loss on May 12, losing 7-4 to the Pirates...pitched against all Western foes in June and recorded a 5-1 record, 3 CG, and a 2.72 ERA...tossed his 5th career two-hitter on June 29 at Houston, winning 2-0 and improving his record to 12-3 overall...had a season-high nine strikeouts on Aug. 30 at Montreal and won his 18th game...his last four innings of that game was the start of his record-breaking scoreless innings streak...he threw eight straight complete games before his 10 inning outing on the record-breaking night...allowed two earned runs or fewer in 23 of his 34 starts...was named N.L. Pitcher of the Month for April and September...in postseason action, Hershiser posted a 3-0 record with one save against the Mets and Athletics, and allowed just five earned runs in 42.2 innings for a 1.05 ERA...he earned Most Valuable Player honors for both the NLCS and World Series...pitched a complete game shutout in Game 7 of the NLCS against the Mets to put the Dodgers in the World Series, and pitched a complete game victory in the 5th and deciding game against the Athletics to give the Dodgers the World Championship...in his last 13 outings (includes playoffs), he allowed just seven earned runs in 106.2 innings and a 0.59 ERA...he was the first pitcher in the history to throw a shutout in both the LCS and World Series in the same season...prior to spring training, had an appendectomy in February. 1987 - Hershiser ranked among league leaders in all pitching categories except shutouts...he tied for 3rd in wins (16), 3rd in ERA (3.06), tied for 4th in strikeouts (190), 1st in innings pitched (264.2) and 3rd in complete games (10)...his 35 starts matched his career high set in 1986 and he set career highs in innings pitched, complete games and strikeouts...was named to the National League All-Star team for the game at Oakland, the first selection in his career...he was also selected to the Baseball America All-Star team...he had his best success at Dodger Stadium (9-6, 2.42)...was named the N.L. Pitcher of the Month in June (5-1, 0.90)...he set a career and Dodger season high in strikeouts when he fanned 14 on June 19 at Houston...also had the season-high for Dodger pitchers for most innings by a starter at 10-plus that evening...Hershiser made two relief appearances, picking up a save on May 2 at St. Louis, his first since June 23, 1984...led Dodger pitchers with 19 hits in 90 at-bats...he also scored 10 runs and drove in seven...led the Dodger team in sacrifice hits with 10...was used as a pinch-hitter three times. 1986 - Hershiser started fast with a 5-3 record and a 1.95 ERA through May 25 (10 starts), but struggled the rest of the season...his longest winning streak was three...his strikeout high was 10, twice, May 16 vs. the Mets and July 28 vs. the Giants...only threw one shutout, a 10-0 eight-hitter Sept. 29 at San Diego in his next-to-last start...tossed a pair of three-hitters, June 24 vs. Atlanta and July 28 vs. San Francisco...his 11-game home and overall winning streak was halted in a 1-0 Opening Day loss to San Diego on April 7, even though Hershiser allowed just two hits after the third inning...he was 10-5 with a 3.07 ERA at home and was 4-9 with a 4.84 ERA on the road. 1985 - Helped the Dodgers win the Western Division title and compiled the best winning percentage in baseball (19-3, .864)...finished 3rd in the league in ERA (2.03), tied for 3rd in shutouts (5), 5th in wins (19), 6th in complete games (9) and 8th in strikeouts (157)...won his last 11 decisions, the longest Dodger winning streak since

Burt Hooton won 12 in a row in 1975 (Hershiser's last loss was July 7 at St. Louis)...his 11-0 record and 1.08 ERA at Dodger Stadium was the best-ever for a Dodger pitcher...threw a one-hitter twice (April 26 vs. San Diego and July 23 vs. Pittsburgh), as well as a two-hitter and three-hitter...compiled a string of 22 consecutive scoreless innings...in one stretch, he faced 29 batters over three appearances without a ball being hit out of the infield. 1984 - Hershiser opened his rookie season in the bullpen, but had trouble with consistency in his first 16 games...an injury to Jerry Reuss thrust Hershiser into a start on May 26 at New York, and he joined the starting rotation June 26 vs. Chicago...that game marked the start of the longest consecutive scoreless inning streak by a N.L. pitcher at 33.2 innings...he tied for the league lead in shutouts (4), 3rd in ERA (2.66), 6th in complete games (8), and 8th in strikeouts (150)...finished 3rd in the N.L. Rookie of the Year balloting...He was named N.L. Pitcher of the Month in July with four shutouts. First big league win was in relief on April 5 in L.A. vs. St. Louis...won his first game as a starter on June 29 vs. Chicago, winning 7-1 in 9.0 innings pitched. 1983 - Hershiser made his major league debut Sept. 1 vs. Montreal and recorded his first strikeout against Tim Wallach of the Montreal Expos...his first big league save came Sept. 30 vs. the Giants, the night the Dodgers clinched the Western Division title...was named to the Dodgers' playoff roster as a sub for Steve Howe...began the season by winning the James and Dearie Mulvey award as the top Dodger rookie during spring training.

MINOR LEAGUE NOTES: 1983 - Hershiser earned a promotion to Los Angeles by finishing 3rd in the Pacific Coast League in saves (16) and was 7th in ERA (4.09). 1982 - Hershiser finished 7th in the Pacific Coast League ERA race with a 3.71 mark in his first year at the AAA level...he won six of his first seven decisions in relief for the Albuquerque Dukes. 1981 - Pitched for San Antonio of the Texas League and led the team with 15 saves. 1980 - Pitched for San Antonio of the Texas League and led the team with 14 saves. 1979 - Spent his first professional season with Clinton of the Midwest League and finished with a 4-0 record and 2.09 ERA.

How Obtained: Traded to the Dodgers by Oakland along with shortstop Alfredo Griffin and pitcher Jesse Orosco for pitchers Jack Savage, Bob Welch and Matt Young on December 11, 1987

1989 NOTES: Was the Dodgers' closer and posted a 5-3 record with 28 saves and a 1.58 ERA in a team high 56 games...his 28 saves set a new Dodger record for most saves in a season...the previous record was 24 set by Jim Brewer in 1970 and Jim Hughes in 1954...tied for 4th in the N.L. with John Franco of the Reds...finished third in the Rollins Relief Man award behind Mitch Williams of the Cubs and Mark Davis of the Padres...had the third best ERA among N.L. relief men...finished 41 games, a team high and 10th among N.L. relief artists...it marked the third time since becoming a full-time reliever in 1984 that he recorded 20 or more saves in a season and his 28 saves were the second most in his career, only one shy of the 29 he had in 1985 with Oakland...posted a career-best 1.58 ERA and his 56 appearances were the third most in his career...made 10 appearances in April and was 1-2 with two saves and a 1.17 ERA...did not record his first save until April 19 vs. Cincinnati (6th outting), his longest dry spell without a save for the year...started a 17.0 inning scoreless streak on April 22 vs. San Francisco and ended with one earned run on May 30 vs. Montreal...it would be the only run he would allow in 10 May outings, posting a 1-1 record with a 0.73 ERA and at one point totaling seven straight saves in as many appearances from May 6 to May 27...the month of June was just as impressive, totaling five saves and a 0.51 ERA in 12 appearances...on June 27 vs. San Diego he recorded a season-high three strikeouts...had a season-high 19.1 scoreless inning streak from June 4 to July 21...allowed just four earned runs in 34 appearances and a 0.78 ERA with 15 saves in 17 save opportunities at the All-Star break...was named to the All-Star team... closed the month of July with his 20th save at Houston and began August with four straight saves... two appearances later recorded his record-breaking 25th save on Aug. 20 at New York in L.A.'s 5-4 win... was named the N.L. Player of the Week from July 31-Aug. 6 while saving four games and a 0.00 ERA in 6.1 innings pitched... pitched 4.0 innings on Aug. 13 at San Francisco in the Dodgers' 3-2 win, his longest relief outing as a Dodger... September was a good month in terms of wins, posting a 2-0 record with two saves, but his ERA for the month was 6.97, allowing eight runs in 10.1 innings... had three saves in his last 10 outings (Aug. 21-Oct. 1)... closed the 1989 campaign on Oct. 1 at Atlanta with his 28th save... saved his first nine save opportunities... was 3-0 with a 2.70 ERA after the All-Star break... would notch 17 saves in 17 save opportunities from June 5 to Sept. 4... had 28 saves in 32 save opportunities... his four blown saves came on back-to-back outings two separate times, on May 30 and June 4 and Sept. 12 and Sept. 17... opponents' first batters were 9-for-51 (.176) with only two extra base hits, both doubles... stranded 20 of 26 runners inherited... did not allow a run in 46 of his 56 appearances... allowed three home runs, two in Sept. and just four in last two years or 106 outings... had a 1.10 ERA on artificial turf... involved in three extra inning decisions and was 2-1... chosen the Dodgers' right-handed reliever of the 1980s by the Southern California media... was tabbed Dodger Pitcher of the Year by the local chapter of the BBWAA.

1989 NOTES: In his first season with the Dodgers he posted an 8-11 record in 40 games with a 2.53 ERA...came to the Dodgers on March 11 from Baltimore in exchange for outfielder Mike Devereaux...made his debut on April 3 at Cincinnati in relief and pitched two-thirds of an inning...joined the starting rotation on April 14 vs. Houston and pitched 8.0 innings in a 3-2 loss...won his first game as a Dodger in his next start, a combined 3-0 shutout win over Cincinnati on April 19...had to leave the game early due to inflammation in his big right toe...was 2-1 with a 1.08 ERA in April in six games, three starts...started five games in May and was 2-1 with a 1.27 ERA...through May he was 4-2 with a league-leading 1.19 ERA...combined with Jay Howell on May 6 to defeat the Cubs 3-0 at Los Angeles...but hard times fell on the right-hander as he would lose nine of his next 11 starts...struck out a career-high nine on May 15 at New York, a mark he equalled 12 days later against the Mets in Los Angeles on May 27...in that game he came within one out of his first complete game since Aug., 1988...recorded his first major league hit on May 15, a single to right field off Mets pitcher Sid Fernandez...would appear in seven games in June, six as a starter and was 1-5 with a 2.43 ERA...lost four straight from June 17 to July 3...in that span the Dodgers scored five runs while Morgan allowed eight earned runs and had a 2.43 ERA...at the All-Star break he was 6-8 and led the N.L. with a 1.79 ERA...started his first three games after the All-Star Game and allowed 14 earned runs in 12.1 innings and was 0-3 with a 10.21 ERA...went to the bullpen on July 27 after starting 19 games...he was 6-11 with a 2.74 ERA as a starter...in his 11 losses, the Dodgers scored 16 runs and scored less than two runs six times...on July 27, his first relief appearance since June 3 at Houston, he received the win in the Dodgers' 7-5 victory over Houston...would win one more time in 1989, a 7-5 win over Houston in relief, pitching 2.0 innings, allowing one hit...he was 2-0 as a reliever in a career-high 21 games with a 1.72 ERA...was 1-3 in one-run games...reached the 7th inning in nine of 19 starts and the Dodgers were 4-5...his 40 games and a 2.53 ERA were a career best...missed qualifying for the ERA title by 9.1 innings...his 2.53 ERA would have been 4th best among N.L. hurlers...left six of 11 runners inherited and opponent's first batters were 4-for-19 (.211)...signed a two-year contract on Oct. 24.

CAREER NOTES—Begins his 10th season and his 2nd with the Dodgers...he has played for 11 different managers (Jack McKeon in 1978, Jim Marshall in 1979, Bob Lemon, Gene Michael and Clyde King in 1982, Bobby Cox in 1983, Chuck Cottier in 1985, Chuck Cottier, Marty Martinez and Dick Williams in 1986, Dick Williams in 1987, Frank Robinson in 1988 and Tommy Lasorda in 1989)...his 42-79 record in his nine years is the lowest among active pitchers with at least 20 wins...he is one of 15 players and one of nine pitchers since the inception of the amateur draft in 1965 to make his pro debut in the major leagues...last complete game was Aug. 5, 1988 vs. Milwaukee...last complete game victory was Sept. 25, 1987 vs. Texas...last shutout was a 7-0 win on Sept. 8, 1987 at Cleveland...has appeared in 59 games as a reliever and is 5-2 with a 2.78 ERA (116.2 IP-36 ER) and two saves...his two saves were on May 22, 1988 vs. Seattle while with the Orioles and April 15, 1986 at California with Seattle...has thrown two four-hitters on July 28, 1987 vs. Minnesota and Sept. 16, 1986 vs. Chicago, both while with the Mariners...career low hit game is three on July 29, 1979 with Oakland, his 10th major league start...has been placed on the DL six times, last time Aug. 12, 1988.

M.L. Career: 1988 – Began the season as the Orioles' number two starter before being moved to the bullpen on May 9...was 1-6 with Baltimore in 22 games, 10 as a starter and posted a 5.43 ERA...was 0-5 after his first seven starts...the Orioles scored two runs or less in five of his seven starts and three or less in six...made seven relief appearances in May, pitching a total of 11.2 innings and earned one save...was placed on the DL in early June with a sore right calf...assigned to Rochester for rehabilitation and rejoined the Orioles on July 19...made six more appearances, two starts...earned his only win on July 23 at Minnesota with four innings of one-hit relief in an 11-8 victory...placed on the DL again on Aug. 12 for the remainder of the season...was operated on Aug. 18 by Dr. Charles Silberstein to correct an abnormal bone growth in his right foot (big toe)...was 1-0 with one save and a 2.74 ERA as a reliever...save came on May 22 at home vs. Seattle...was acquired by the Orioles from Seattle on December 12, 1987. 1987 – Had career highs in wins (12) and shutouts (2)...his 17 losses were fifth highest in A.L. and tied for fifth in the majors with Bob Knepper...after a brief stint in the bullpen, came back to post a 5-2 record in his next seven starts...his four wins in May were a career high...was 10-11 on Aug. 8, but went just 2-6 the rest of the way...averaged 2.3 walks per nine innings, second best on squad. 1986 – Tied with Chicago's Richard Dotson for most losses in A.L. with 17...was 7-8 at the All-Star break. 1985 – Won his first start, 14-6 vs. Oakland, but in his next outing, he went down with a severely pulled groin muscle in the second inning and missed the remainder of the season on the DL. 1983 – Posted a 0-3 record with the Blue Jays in 16 games...started four games and had a 5.16 ERA...tendinitis in his right shoulder plagued him through June and he was placed on the DL in July...returned on Aug. 31 in a no-decision vs. Baltimore. 1982 – Returned to the big leagues for the first time since 1979 and spent his first full season in the majors with the Yankees...was 7-11 with a 4.37 ERA for the year. 1979 – Joined the A's on June 25 after beginning the season at Ogden...gave up career home run number 400 to Hall of Famer Carl Yastrzemski...won his first major league game on July 29, a 2-1 win over Seattle in his 10th career start. 1978 – One week after graduating from high school, the 19-year-old made his major league debut vs. Baltimore on June 11 at Oakland...threw a complete game, allowing just two earned runs, but lost 3-0 to Scott McGregor...was 0-3 for the year and lost his first six games of 1979 before posting a win.

MINOR LEAGUE NOTES: 1988 – Was assigned to Rochester for rehabilitation and posted a 0-2 record before joining the Orioles on July 19. 1985 – Made one start for Calgary in a rehabilitation appearance. 1984 – Spent the entire season at Syracuse and led the International League in innings (185.2) and was second in wins (13), starts (28) and complete games (10). 1983 – Rehabilitated at Syracuse where he went 0-3 in five appearances and posted a 5.59 ERA for the Toronto organization. 1981 – Led the Nashville club with 100 strikeouts...was 8-7 in 26 games for the Yankee organization. 1980 – Spent his first full season in the minors at Ogden in the Pacific Coast League (AAA). Traded to the Yankees following the season. 1979 – Started the season with Ogden, but was recalled by the A's on June 25...was 5-5 with Ogden in 13 starts. 1978 – Was Oakland's first round draft choice in June, 1978, the fourth player chosen overall.

1989 NOTES: Had an impressive first season with the Dodgers, batting .282 in 145 games...it was his highest average since batting .305 in 1987 and his 4th best career mark...raised his average 52 points from last year's .230, the 4th largest gain among N.L. players...his 145 games played were the 3rd most in his career...and his 155 hits led all Dodgers and were the most since 1984 and equalled his second highest set in 1979 and 1982...struck out only 51 times or once every 12.4 at-bats, 6th best in the N.L....collected his first hit as a Dodger on Opening Day (April 3 at Cincinnati)...batted only .220 for the month of April, but put together a season-high eight-game hitting streak from April 15-23, batting .407 (11-for-27) during the streak...May was a hot offensive month for the second baseman, batting .333 and hitting safely in 21 of 25 games...had two four-game hitting streaks, one five-game streak and closed the month with another eight-game hitting streak and hit .545 (18-for-33) with six multi-hit games in those eight games...was 4-for-6 on May 28 vs. New York, tying a career best with four hits in a game...he hit .600 (9-for-15) in the three-game series vs. New York...did not commit an error until May 25 vs. Philadelphia, going 43 games and 229 chances without a miscue...June was another fine offensive month, batting .333 and nine RBI...raised his average to a season-high .298 on June 27 after hitting safely in seven straight from June 20-27 and hit .370 during the streak...was 2-for-5 on June 12 vs. the Reds with two doubles and a season-high four RBI...combining May and June, he hit safely in 40 of 51 games and had identical hits (32) and at-bats (96) each month...batted .291 before the

All-Star Game with 22 RBI...was named to the 1989 All-Star Game played at Anaheim...struggled offensively in August, batting .210 and his overall average dropped to .267 after closing the month with a season-high 0-for-14 hitless streak...however, he did collect his first home run as a Dodger, a game winning three-run homer on Aug. 20 at Shea giving the Dodgers a 5-4 9th inning comeback win...closed the season as the Dodgers hottest hitter, raising his overall average from .267 to .282 and hit .370 (30-for-81) for Sept.-Oct...hit .583 (14-for-24) during a six game hit streak to open the month...had his second home run and 50th career on Sept. 7 at Cincinnati in L.A.'s 8-2 win...had 10 multi-hit games in Sept. including a stretch of seven straight...led the Dodger team with 41 multi-hit games...reached base safely in 117 of his 145 games played...led off 43 times but found his niche batting second and hit .308 (81-for-266)...committed just nine errors for the N.L. leading infield which only committed a total of 59 errors...hit .305 at Dodger Stadium...batted .260 with 33 RBI with runners in scoring position...had six multi-RBI games...walked four times on April 23 at S.F., a team high...was named the Dodgers MVP by the Anaheim-Los Angeles BBWAA chapter.

CAREER NOTES - Batting .274 overall in 14 years...needs to play 131 games in 1990 to reach 2,000...has played 1,869 games and has 1,896 hits...he has 1,510 singles, 5th highest among active players behind Keith Hernandez (1,511), Dave Parker (1,569), Robin Yount (1,802) and Bill Buckner (1,987)...collected his 1,800th hit on June 6, 1989 at Atlanta...last time he scored three runs in a game was July 27, 1988 vs. Milwaukee...has now played in five All-Star Games...has a .372 on-base percentage.

M.L. Career: 1988 - Had an injury-plagued season and batted only .230 and scored 43 runs, both career lows...in addition, outside of the 1981 split season, his 110 games played in 1988 was the second lowest of his career, while his at-bats (404) and hits (93) were career lows...hit his first HR of the season on May 11th vs. Chicago, a three-run HR off Bobby Thigpen...scored three runs on July 27 vs. Milwaukee, his first three-run game since June 14, 1987 vs. Boston...hit his second home run on Aug. 29 at Seattle, a three-run HR off Mark Langston...his stolen base on Sept. 2 at Oakland was his 249th SB as a Yankee, passing Hal Chase and moving into sole possession of second place on the all-time Yankee SB list, behind only Rickey Henderson...totaled 250 stolen bases as a Yankee...had an eight-game hitting streak (his longest of the season) from July 30 through Sept. 3; batted .441 (15-for-34) in that span, raising his average from .229 to .252, his high point of the season following his first six games of the year...had 26 multi-hit games, including six three-hit games...finished 3rd among American League second basemen with a .988 fielding percentage, committing just seven errors in 601 total chances...served as Yankee co-captain along with Ron Guidry since the two were named to that role on March 4, 1986, becoming the 8th and 9th captains in Yankee history...suffered a strained right quadricep vs. Boston on June 8 and was placed on the 15-day disabled list on June 14, retroactive to June 10...at the time of his injury, he was hitting .198 (37-187) in 50 games...he missed 14 games due to that injury before being activated from the disabled list on June 25, and the Yankees went 5-9 in that span...suffered a pulled rib cage muscle in batting practice on Aug. 2 and was placed on the 15-day disabled list due to that injury on Aug. 3...missed 25 games with that injury before his activation from disabled list on Aug. 28, and Yanks went 8-17 in that span...overall, the Yankees were 13-26 in the 39 games Randolph missed during his two stints on the disabled list...was hampered with a sore right knee during the latter part of the season and underwent arthroscopic surgery to remove loose particles in his right knee on Oct. 17...surgery was performed by Dr. John Bonamo at NYU Medical Center...in 1988, Randolph moved from 11th to 8th with 1,694 games on the all-time Yankee list, from 10th to 7th with 6,303 at-bats and 8th to 7th with 1,027 runs...remained in 10th place with 1,731 hits...played 110 games at second base, increasing his all-time Yankee leading total to 1,689 games played at that position...played with two new shortstops in 1988, Rafael Santana and Luis Aguayo, making a total of 31 shortstops he played with during his tenure with the Yankees. 1987 - Had perhaps his best major league season, even with a month-long mid-season knee injury...set career highs with a .305 avg. and 67 RBI...in fact, this was the first season he hit .300 or better...also tied a career-high seven homers... .411 on-base percentage was 4th in American League and 82 walks ranked 9th...scored 96 runs in 120 games, his third best career total, and best since scoring 99 runs in 1980...had four hits and five RBI on April 13 vs. Cleveland, tying career highs previously set in each category...was hitting .309 in 84 games through the All-Star break, and was the American League's starting second baseman in the July 14 All-Star Game...on July 15 he was placed on the 21-day disabled list with torn cartilage in his left knee, an injury that occurred over a gradual period of time...underwent arthroscopic surgery to repair damage on July 17...was activated from the disabled list on Aug. 14, missing 26 games (Yankees went 11-15 during that period)...although activated from the disabled list on Aug. 14, recovery of the knee progressed slowly, and he appeared in just three games between that date and Aug. 29...beginning with Aug. 29, Randolph appeared in 33 of N.Y.'s last 35 games...his numbers after coming off the DL 39-132 (.295), with 26 runs, 3 HRs and 20 RBI...his RBI on Sept. 27 at Baltimore was number 62, surpassing his previous career high of 61 set in 1979...Had two 11-game hitting streaks (May 29-June 8 and Sept. 4-15). 1986 – A typical Randolph season in some regards; atypical in others... typical in that he was third in A.L. with 94 walks and 313 putouts (for second baseman), and 6th in league with .393 on-base percentage... atypical in that he had a career-high 20 errors... had third career 4-walk game, July 3, vs. Detroit... hit one homer in first 108 games, then hit four in last 33... on Sept. 13, Willie played in his 1,447th game at second base for the Yankees, breaking Tony Lazzeri's record of 1,446... recorded his 1,500th career hit Sept. 22, at Baltimore, homering off Scott McGregor... named co-captain with Ron Guidry on March 4... led all Yankee infielders with 381 assists. 1985 – Among A.L. second basemen fielding leaders, 2nd with 739 total chances and 104 double plays; 3rd with 425 assists... had 5,000th career at-bat, Sept. 29, vs. Baltimore... hit 200th career double Oct. 3, off Milwaukee's Tim Leary... had 10-game hitting streak, June 30-July 11... had first career 2-HR game, Sept. 5 vs. Oakland, going 4-for-4... .382 on-base percentage, 6th in A.L., 14th in majors; 85 walks, tied for 7th in A.L., 13th in majors. 1984 – Tied for 6th with Rickey Henderson in A.L. with 86 walks... had impressive .377 on-base percentage... hit two-run homer in Yankee Stadium opener... had pair of nine-game hitting streaks: May 9-19; and June 13-21... stole 200th base of Yankee career, July 16 vs. Texas. 1983 – Hampered by injuries, played in lowest number of games as a Yankee (excluding strike season)... on disabled list from June 27 – July 12 with pulled hamstring and re-injured himself, going back on the DL from July 13 – Aug. 5... had his 1,000th hit as Yankee Aug. 5 vs. Detroit... had 16-game hitting streak from Sept. 6 – 23, longest of the year by a Yankee. 1982 – Led Yankees in games, at-bats, runs, hits and walks. 1981 – 59 runs, 8th in A.L.; 57 walks, 9th; 14 stolen bases, 15th... missed eight games in late Aug. and additional games in Sept. with groin pull... voted to 4th A.L. All-Star team... his solo homer in third game of ALCS was the game-winner, clinching the A.L. pennant. 1980 – Led A.L. with 119 walks, most by a Yankee since Mickey Mantle's 122 in 1962... 429 on-base percentage second in A.L. ... led Yankees and was 8th in league with 30 stolen bases... hit .385 in ALCS, second to Bob Watson... had 13-game hitting streak, May 14-28, matching Reggie Jackson for longest by a Yankee... had two four-hit games, and stole three bases June 11 at California... named to UPI and The Sporting News All-Star teams and won Sporting News Silver Bat Award for A.L. second basemen. 1979 – An injury-free year for Randolph... led club in games, at-bats, runs, triples, walks and stolen bases, while tying for club lead in hits... tied for 3rd in A.L. with 13 triples, most by a Yankee since Tommy Henrich hit 14 in 1948... 4th in A.L. with 95 walks... had three four-hit games... led A.L. second basemen with 355 putouts, 478 assists, 846 total chances and 128 double plays. 1978 – Bothered by injuries, mainly a bruised right knee and pulled left hamstring... finished 5th in A.L. with .385 on-base percentage and led Yankees with 82 walks... went Aug. 16 with 6 runs during N.Y.'s four-game sweep of Boston in September... had five-RBI game vs. Red Sox, Sept. 7... pulled left hamstring beating out an infield single, Sept. 29 vs. Indians, ending his '78 season, keeping him out of the playoffs and World Series... hit .320 with runners on base... made both AP & UPI All-Star teams. 1977 – Voted to A.L. All-Star team, playing all nine innings, and set record for most assists by second baseman with six... voted to AP, UPI & The Sporting News All-Star teams... second in league in putouts, total chances and double plays and 3rd in assists for second basemen... had two nine-game hitting streaks... best effort came May 19 vs. Baltimore, going 4-for-4, scoring four runs... hit .305 with runners on base... missed a few games with bruised right thumb and sore right knee. 1976 – Named to Topps Rookie All-Star team and A.L. All-Star team (although replaced due to injury)... first rookie ever listed on an All-Star ballot... won James P. Dawson Award as outstanding rookie in spring training... 37 stolen bases were just four shy of all-time Yankee record for rookie set by Bert Daniels in 1910... had minor surgery during off-season due to a injury to his right knee, first suffered on July 6...was also bothered off-and-on by a sore right shoulder. 1975 - Was leading the International League in hitting when recalled by Pirates in July...saw little action with Pittsburgh as Rennie Stennett was having a fine year...played winter ball in Venezuela.

MINOR LEAGUE NOTES: 1975 - Started the season with Charleston and was leading the International League with a .339 average before joining the Pirates in July ... appeared in 91 games and had 106 hits with 14 stolen bases. 1974 - Batted .254 in 135 games for Thetford Mines...led the league with 103 runs scored and 110 walks. 1973 - Played the entire season with Charleston and batted .280 in 121 games...led the league with 90 walks. 1972 - First season in pro ball and hit .317 for Bradenton ...struck out only 23 times in 167 at-bats.

PERSONAL: One of the most sought after infield prospects of the mid-'70s, able to swing a good bat, draw walks and steal bases... although born in South Carolina, his family moved to the Brownsville section of Brooklyn when he was a baby...played baseball at Tilden High School...played stickball in streets and fields of Canarsie...the oldest of five children, he has 3 brothers and a sister ...his brother Terry was the Green Bay Packers 11th round draft choice in 1977, and also played for the Jets...wife's name is Gretchen Foster...married on Feb. 1, 1975 ...they have four children, Taniesha, Chantre, Andre & Ciara.

HOME RUNS IN FIRST APPEARANCE

Four Dodgers have hit home runs in their first major league appearance and two of the four have come by a pitcher. All four hit home runs for Brooklyn. They are: pitcher Dan Bankhead, Aug. 26, 1947; pitcher Clise Dudley, April 27, 1929; outfielder Ernie Koy, April 19, 1938; and infielder Gordon Slade, May 24, 1930. Who will be the first Los Angeles Dodger to do it?

1989 NOTES: Completed his 10th season with the Dodgers and batted .250 in 133 games...had a career-high 10 home runs and tallied 44 RBI, second most in career...totaled 408 at-bats for the second straight year and had 102 hits, three less than in 1988...started 121 games behind the plate...led all N.L. catchers with 822 putouts, 82 assists and 915 total chances and had just 11 errors...threw out 37 of 109 runners...was one of the Dodgers top hitters at the start of 1989, batting .364 (8-for-22) in the first eight games...ended with a .265 average for the month of April and hit safely in 12 of 21 games...had his first five-game hitting streak from May 18-23, hitting .316 (6-for-19) during the streak...also suffered his longest hitless streak, an 0-for-13 stretch from May 27-30...in all, he hit .260 for the month of May...suffered his worst offensive month in June, hitting just .213 in 23 games...went to the plate for the 3,000th time on June 6 at Atlanta...hit his first grand slam on June 4 at Houston off Bob Forsch in L.A.'s 7-6 loss...played in his 1,000th game and collected his 800th career hit on June 27 vs. San Diego...was 5-for-14 (.357) to start July and hit safely in 16 of 24 games and hit .250...named to the N.L. All-Star team and was batting .249 at the break...average dropped to a season low .238 on Aug. 20 but closed the month with an 8-for-18 (.444) clip and raised his overall average to .249 and batted .262 for the month...hit his second grand slam on Aug. 8 vs. Atlanta off John Smoltz...became the first Dodger to hit two grand slams in a season since Mike Marshall and Greg Brock in 1985...equalled his season-high five-game hitting streak from Sept. 15-23 (7-for-16) hitting .438 during the streak...hit .260 for the month...had three four-RBI games to lead the team and had seven multi-RBI games on the year...his four-RBI games were on June 6 at Atlanta, Aug. 8 vs. Atlanta and Sept. 25 vs. San Francisco...had 23 multi-hit games...had a season-high three hits on April 23 vs. the Giants...was 2-for-13 with bases loaded (.154) with 11 RBI...hit .204 (20-for-98) with runners in scoring position...had 52 walks, third highest on team...struck out once every 14.1 at-bats.

CAREER NOTES - Had 100 or more hits for the third straight season and played in 100 or more games for the 6th straight year...has batted .261 in his 10-year career with the Dodgers...only 13 of his 45 home runs are at Dodger Stadium...has thrown out 75 of 220 runners the last two years (.341)...only pinch-running appearance was on Sept. 30, 1988 vs. San Francisco...career rate of one strikeout every 15.2 at-bats...has 18 stolen bases and his last stolen base was Sept. 23, 1987 at San Francisco.

M.L. Career: 1988 - Put together another solid year behind the plate, batting .257 overall with three home runs and 35 RBI...his biggest hit of 1988 was most likely on a Sunday night in postseason play when he hit a two-run homer in the 9th inning off Doc Gooden on October 4 in Game 4 of the NLCS...the home run tied the score at 4-4 and the Dodgers would go on to win 5-4 on Gibson's 12th inning blast...was impressive behind the plate, throwing out 38-of-111 runners...he totaled 818 chances behind the plate, 3rd most in the N.L....committed just nine errors for a .991 fielding percentage...started the campaign as the top hitter in the N.L., batting .404 (21-for-52) and at one point had a season-high nine-game hitting streak

...saw his average climb to .308 in the Houston series (June 6-8) but three games later his average would dip below .300 for good ...still was a consistent hitter, totaling 23 multiple-hit games and had three or more hits seven times ...hit his first home run on May 25 at Philadelphia and his second big HR came on June 27 at Houston... both homers were game-winning RBI...final game-winning two-run homer in the regular season was Sept. 13 vs. the Braves, his first HR at Dodger Stadium...made his first career pinch-running appearance Sept. 30 vs. the Giants, replacing Steve Sax at first...struck out just 31 times in 408 at-bats or one every 13.2 at-bats...fifth straight season he had played 100 or more games ...played in 129 games and started 115 at catcher...suffered a knee injury in Game 4 of the World Series ...had arthroscopic surgery in the off-season for partial removal of torn medial meniscus in right knee. 1987 - Played in a career-high 142 games and batted .265 with six homers and 38 RBI...set career highs with 461 at-bats and seven stolen bases and tied a career best 26 doubles...struck out just 23 times in 461 at-bats...was on the DL from June 1-16 with a fractured middle finger on left hand when struck by a pitch during batting practice...matched career high with four hits April 21 at San Francisco. 1986 - Hit .251 on the year in 122 games...injuries hampered him and was placed on the DL from June 10 - July 15 with torn membrane in right ankle while blocking the plate. 1985 - Became the Dodgers' regular catcher after platooning with Steve Yeager for four-plus years and he enjoyed one of his best seasons...batted a career high .296 (full season) in 141 games and posted career bests with 47 runs, 127 hits, 26 doubles, three triples, seven home runs, 53 RBI and 77 walks...missed becoming the first Dodger catcher to hit .300 since Roy Campanella in 1955...led the team with a .324 clip with runners in scoring position. 1984 - It was the comeback year for Scioscia, rebounding from a career threatening injury to bat .273 in 114 games...had a career-high eight GWRBI...tossed out 39 percent of would-be stealers...led the club with a .328 runners in scoring position average...missed 100 hits for the season by seven. 1983 - Season ended on May 14 in San Diego when he suffered a slight tear to the rotator cuff in his right shoulder while throwing out Alan Wiggins at second base...spent the remainder of 1983 rehabilitating the shoulder with Dodger therapist Pat Screnar...served as team's press box coach, positioning the defense as the "eye in the sky"...batted .314 in 12 games. 1982 - Hit a career-low .219 in his second full season with the Dodgers...played in 129 games and had five home runs and 38 RBI. 1981 - First full season with the Dodgers and batted an impressive .276 in 93 games ...flirted with the .300 mark for most of the season...had a career high 11-game hitting streak...hit a home run in Game 1 of the NLCS vs. the Expos. 1980 - Played 54 games for the Dodgers and bat .254 with one home run and eight RBI...first big league hit was April 20 vs. Houston in his first at-bat (double)...first home run was July 6 vs. San Francisco off John Montefusco.

MINOR LEAGUE NOTES: 1980 - Batted .331 in Albuquerque, appearing in just 52 games...was called up to Los Angeles where he batted .254 in 54 games. 1979 - Hit a minor league high .336 for the Dukes in 143 games...had three homers and 68 RBI...led the Pacific Coast League with 19 double plays. 1978 - Hit .299 in the Texas League with San Antonio in 58 games...led all catchers with 12 double plays. 1977 - Batted .253 with Clinton and appeared in 121 games. 1976 - First year in the minors and hit .278 with Bellingham in 46 games.

THREE HOMERS IN A GAME BY OPPONENT AT DODGER STADIUM

The Dodgers have allowed three homers in a game to an opponent four times in the history of Dodger Stadium. Dave Kingman has accomplished it twice and Willie Stargell of the Pittsburgh Pirates and Claudell Washington of the New York Mets did it the other two times. Stargell was the first to do it on June 24, 1965 as he drove in seven runs. Kingman did it with the New York Mets on June 4, 1976 and drove in eight runs. He repeated with the Chicago Cubs on May 14, 1978 and also drove in eight runs. Washington, who currently plays for California, hit three at Dodger Stadium on June 22, 1980 and accounted for four RBI.

Dodgers Finish Strong - The Dodgers finished in 4th place with a 77-83 record, fourth place, 14 games behind the division-winning Giants...the Dodgers largest deficit of the season was 18 games out...the Dodgers had a winning record in games after the All-Star Break, 37-36 (third best in the division)...the Dodgers finished by winning four straight games and 11 of the final 18 games...the Dodgers spent all but 15 days during the season in fourth place or lower.

Lasorda Manages 2,000th Major League Game - Tommy Lasorda managed his 2,000th major league game on August 2 vs. San Francisco, a 7-4 L.A. win...in his 13 years as the Dodger manager, Lasorda has now managed 2,052 games, winning 1,097 for a .535 winning percentage...1989 was also the year of the big diet for the skipper...in spring training Lasorda began a diet which saw him drop from 218 pounds down to around 180...the loss of weight by Lasorda was a gain for charity as he raised over $50,000 in challenges for keeping the weight off.

Fernando Bounces Back - Fernando Valenzuela recovered nicely from the shoulder problems that plagued him in 1988 to start 31 games in 1989...he compiled a 10-13 record with a 3.43 ERA...Valenzuela started slowly with a 4.91 ERA through eight games and an 0-5 record through his first 10 games...over his final 17 starts he had a 2.94 ERA...Valenzuela has now made 287 starts for the Dodgers which ranks fourth on the all-time L.A. Dodgers games started list.

Belcher Leads Majors With Eight Shutouts - Tim Belcher led all major league pitchers with eight shutouts and finished with a 15-12 record and a 2.82 ERA...he closed the year by winning seven straight games and was 5-0 with a 1.51 ERA in September...he finished second in the N.L. in strikeouts (200), tied for first with Bruce Hurst in complete games (10) and ninth in innings pitched (230).

Hershiser Finishes 2nd In ERA Race - Orel Hershiser finished the season with a 2.31 ERA, second in the N.L. to Scott Garrelts' 2.28 ERA

...Hershiser led the N.L. in innings pitched (256.2), tied for third in shutouts (4) and complete games (8) and sixth in strikeouts (178).

Murray Provided Punch - First baseman Eddie Murray led the Dodgers in seven offensive categories: at-bats (594), runs (66), total bases (238), home runs (20), RBI (88), sacrifice flies (7) and walks (87)...he was the only Dodger to play in all 160 games, making 159 starts at first base...for the 12th time in 13 major league seasons he hit at least 20 homers...did not commit an error in his last 104 games.

Howell Sets Team Save Record - Jay Howell set the Dodgers' all-time save record with 28 saves and a 1.58 ERA in 58 games...the previous Dodger record for saves was 24 achieved by Jim Brewer in 1970 and Jim Hughes in 1954...the right-handed reliever had only four blown saves in 32 chances.

Dodgers By Month - The Dodgers were 11-13 in April, 14-11 in May, 12-17 in June, 12-16 in July, 13-14 in August, 14-12 in September and 1-0 in October.

Home Attendance - The Dodgers drew 2,944,653 fans in 1989 (81 dates)...it was the 10th largest season attendance since the club moved to Los Angeles and ranked second in the league behind St. Louis...average daily attendance was 36,354...the Dodgers drew 2,980,262 fans in 1988.

Tops On The Hill - The Dodgers pitching staff led the majors with a 2.95 ERA...the staff allowed just 29 earned runs in the final 123 innings pitched (2.12 ERA)...the Dodgers allowed two earned runs or less in 76 of the 160 games (48%)...the Dodgers led the N.L. with 19 shutouts and 25 complete games...opponents batted just .237 against the staff, second best in the N.L.

Offense Finishes Strong - The Dodgers finished the season by collecting 159 hits in the last 608 bats (18 games) to wind up with a team batting average of .240...the season high was .242...the team batting average over the final 18 games was .262...the Dodgers led the N.L. with 1,171 LOB...the offense was shut down 17 times, highest in the N.L.

Dodger Doubles – The Dodgers had 241 doubles in 1989, the second highest total in L.A. Dodger history...the most doubles by an L.A. team was 251 set in 1978...the all-time Dodger record stands at 303 in 1930...Jeff Hamilton led the Dodgers with 35 doubles, tied for the sixth best in L.A. history.

Like Day And Night – The Dodgers were 30-19 in games played during the day and 47-64 in night games...L.A. batted .248 with 34 home runs and scored an average of 4.04 runs a game in 49 day games...at night, the Dodgers had a .237 team batting average, 55 home runs and scored an average of 3.21 runs in 111 games...the pitching staff had a 2.73 ERA in day games and a 3.05 ERA in night games.

There's No Place Like Home – The Dodgers had a 44-37 record at Dodger Stadium in 1989 and were 33-46 on the road...the Dodgers won 11 of the last 16 games played at Dodger Stadium...the Dodgers had a winning record on the road in just two cities, Atlanta (5-2) and Montreal (4-2).

Playing The Natural Way – The Dodgers had a 61-57 record in games played on grass and a 16-26 record in games played on artificial turf...the Dodgers batted .242 on grass and .236 on turf...the staff ERA was 2.81 on grass and 3.31 on turf.

Left vs. Right – The Dodgers were 32-26 vs. left-handed pitching and 45-57 vs. right-handed pitching in 1989...Mickey Hatcher led L.A. with a .321 batting average vs. lefties...Eddie Murray led the team with 21 RBI vs. LHP...Willie Randolph was the top batter vs. right-handers (.280) and Murray led the team with 54 RBI vs. RHP.

Playing Them Close – The Dodgers played 58 one-run games (36 percent) and had a 27-31 record in those games...the Dodgers played twelve 1-0 games and were 5-7 in them...Tim Belcher had a 6-1 record in one-run games and Orel Hershiser was 3-9 in one-run games.

Turning Two – The Dodgers led the league with 153 double plays turned and finished with a .981 fielding percentage, third best in the N.L...in 1988, the Dodgers finished tied for last in DP's turned and had a .977 fielding mark (tied for 9th best in N.L.)...the 153 double plays turned by the Dodgers were the most by a Dodger team since 1977 (160)...in all, the Dodgers committed just 59 infield errors, lowest in the National League.

Pinch-Hitters – Dodger pinch-hitters batted .235 with three home runs and 38 RBI...Mickey Hatcher, Lenny Harris and Franklin Stubbs tied for the team lead with six pinch-hits...Hatcher led the team with 10 pinch-hit RBI.

Longest Streak Was Five Games – The Dodgers' longest winning and losing streak during the 1989 season was five games...the Dodgers won five straight games, June 26-30 and lost five straight twice, June 11-15 and July 3-July 7...the most games the Dodgers were above .500 was two games, the last time being on June 15 (33-31)...the most games the Dodgers were below .500 was 10, the last time being on Sept. 24 (73-83).

Longest Games In L.A. Dodger History – The Dodgers played the two longest games in L.A. Dodger history in 1989...on June 3 at Houston, the Dodgers lost to the Astros 5-4 in 22 innings...the 22 innings and 7:14 game time were the longest in the history of the L.A. Dodgers...on Aug. 23 at Montreal, the Dodgers tied the inning record by defeating the Expos 1-0 in 22 innings...following the game on June 3, the Dodgers and Astros played a 13-inning day game on June 4, making it 35 innings played in 24 hours.

Dodger All-Stars – The Dodgers were well represented at the 1989 All-Star Game held at Anaheim Stadium...selected from the Dodgers were pitchers Orel Hershiser and Jay Howell, infielder Willie Randolph and catcher Mike Scioscia...Tommy Lasorda managed the N.L. team and coaches Bill Russell, Mark Cresse and Joe Amalfitano were named to the staff.

Disabled Dodgers – The Dodgers had a total of 18 disabling moves to the roster in 1989 (13 players)...sluggers Kirk Gibson, Mike Marshall and Eddie Murray were starters together in just 35 of 160 games...the Dodgers used 110 different lineups in 1989.

Help Came From The Farm – Two of the Dodger season-ending five-man starting rotation, Ramon Martinez and John Wetteland, began the season at Albuquerque (AAA)...Martinez, 21, finished with a 6-4 record a 3.19 ERA in 15 starts with two shutouts...Wetteland, 23, was 5-8 with a 3.77 ERA in 31 games, 12 starts.

Who Was That Man – Dodger infielder Dave Hansen was called up to the big leagues during the 1989 season, but you may have missed him...Hansen was flown into Montreal on Aug. 20 where the Dodgers were playing the Expos... he was activated on the 21st, but the Expos started left-hander Mark Langston, so the left-handed hitting third baseman did not see action...after the game, Mickey Hatcher was activated from the disabled list and Hansen was returned to the minor leagues.

LOPES STEALS RECORD 38 STRAIGHT BASES

Former Dodger base-stealing artist Davey Lopes set a then-major league record in 1975 by stealing 38 consecutive bases without being thrown out. His efforts erased the old mark of 31 set by Max Carey of Pittsburgh in 1922. Lopes began his history-making string on June 10 by stealing second base against Montreal in the first inning. He stole his 38th straight base in the seventh inning of a game with the Expos on August 24, but was thrown out by Montreal catcher Gary Carter in the 12th inning of the same game to end the string.

DECADE OF SUCCESS

The Los Angeles Dodgers won the most World Championships and more divisions titles in Major League Baseball than any team during the 1980s. The Dodgers also tied with the St. Louis Cardinals for most wins in the National League during the decade. The Dodgers won the World Series in 1981 and 1988, the only team to win two titles during the decade. Also, the Dodgers won four National League Western Division titles – 1981, 1983, 1985 and 1988. The following is a list of teams winning World Series Championships in the 1980s and the number of division titles and games:

Team	WS Wins	Division Titles	Wins During Decade
Los Angeles	2	4	825
Baltimore	1	1	800
Detroit	1	2	839
Kansas City	1	3	826
Minnesota	1	1	733
New York Mets	1	2	816
Oakland	1	3	803
Philadelphia	1	2	783
St. Louis	1	3	825

DODGERS' 1989 MINOR LEAGUE RECAP

The Dodgers' minor league system sent five of the eight teams into postseason play for the second consecutive season, the only organization to do so.

Bakersfield (A), Great Falls (R) and Santo Domingo (R) won their respective leagues this season and Albuquerque (AAA) and Kissimmee (R) lost in the league finals.

Overall the minor league system had a 455-360 record, 95 games above .500. Seven of the eight teams posted records above .500 (only San Antonio Double-A was below .500). The 455 wins by the Dodger farm teams was tops in baseball and the .558 winning percentage was second only to the Chicago White Sox (.582). The Dodgers had 22 minor leaguers selected to all-star teams, the most in baseball.

Minor league shortstop Jose Offerman was selected as baseball's best major league prospect in a poll by Baseball America. Offerman hit .306 with 37 stolen bases in 62 games at Bakersfield and .288 with 32 stolen bases in 68 games at San Antonio. He was voted by California League managers and coaches as the top defensive shortstop, best batting prospect, best base runner, fastest base runner, infielder with the best arm and the most exciting player in the league.

The Dodgers selected left-hander Jim Poole as the organizations' Minor League Pitcher of the Year and outfielder Mike Huff as the Player of the Year. Poole was 11-4 with a 1.61 ERA and had 19 saves for Vero Beach (A). Poole had either a win or save in 43 percent of Vero's wins. Huff batted .318 with 10 home runs and 78 RBI and was named to the Triple-A All-Star team.

The Dodgers had three number one selections in the June, 1989 Free Agent Draft (two as compensation for the New York Yankees signing of free agent Steve Sax). Pitchers Kiki Jones and Jamie McAndrew (compensation selections) were a combined 19-0 for the Great Falls Dodgers of the Pioneer League (R). Jones was 8-0 with a 1.58 ERA and McAndrew was 11-0 with a 1.65 ERA. Tom Goodwin, the Dodgers regular first round selection batted .308 and set the league record with 60 steals in 63 games.

This year's success coupled with 1988's composite record of 474-330, for an industry-high 144 games above .500, leaves the Dodgers optimistically eyeing the future.

CAMPO LAS PALMAS

Guerra, D.N. - Republica Dominicana

Campo Las Palmas in the Dominican Republic opened in March, 1987 and is the home of the Los Angeles Dodgers baseball academy. The camp is dedicated to the youth of the Dominican Republic, in recognition of their love of baseball. Campo Las Palmas serves as a baseball training ground for these young Latin American athletes.

STARGELL BLASTS ONLY ONES TO CLEAR DODGER STADIUM

Pittsburgh Pirate first baseman Willie Stargell is the only player ever to hit a ball out of Dodger Stadium - and he did it twice. Stargell hit the first ball on Aug. 5, 1969 (off Alan Foster) and it traveled over the Right Field Pavilion landing 506 feet, 6 inches away. The second blast came on May 8, 1973 (off Andy Messersmith) and it hit the Right Field Pavilion roof and landed 470 feet away from home plate.

DODGER MANAGEMENT STAFF

PETER O'MALLEY

President, begins his 21st year as president of the Los Angeles Dodgers in 1990. The season marks the 41st year of the O'Malley family's leadership of the club, the longest active ownership in baseball. The late Walter O'Malley served as president of the Dodgers for 20 years and his son, Peter O'Malley, was appointed president in March, 1970. During his tenure as president, the Dodgers have enjoyed tremendous success, including two World Championships, five League Championships and seven Divisional Titles. O'Malley began working full time in the Dodger organization in January, 1962, when he was named director of Dodgertown, the Dodgers' spring training camp in Vero Beach, Florida. In January, 1965, O'Malley was appointed president and general manager of the Spokane Indians, the Dodgers' Triple-A farm club in the Pacific Coast League. O'Malley came to Los Angeles in January, 1967, when he was named vice president in charge of stadium operations. Two years later, he was appointed executive vice president. O'Malley attended La Salle Military Academy in Oakdale, New York, and majored in business law at the Wharton School of Business and Finance at the University of Pennsylvania, graduating with a Bachelor of Science degree in economics in 1960.

O'Malley has been a longtime supporter of international, amateur and professional baseball. He has worked closely with numerous baseball organizations throughout the world. O'Malley is also a member of the Board of Directors of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, a member of the Music Center of Los Angeles County Board of Governors, a director of the Los Angeles World Affairs Council, a trustee emeritus of Phi Gamma Delta Educational Foundation, a trustee of the Little League Baseball Foundation, a trustee of the Los Angeles Police Memorial Foundation, a director of the Jackie Robinson Foundation, a member of the Board of Directors of the Los Angeles Guangzhou (China) Sister City Association, and a member of the Board of Directors of the The Tidings newspaper.

FRED CLAIRE

Executive Vice President, Player Personnel.

The 1989 off-season proved to be another busy one for Executive Vice President, Player Personnel Fred Claire. Hoping for a repeat of the 1988 World Championship season, he added outfielders Juan Samuel and Hubie Brooks and pitchers Jim Gott and Mike Maddux to an already able roster. Claire's 1988 acquisitions enabled the club to earn its sixth World Championship in Dodger history, thus earning him The Sporting News Executive of the Year award. Claire became the fifth Dodger executive in history to win this honor, joining Larry MacPhail (1939), Branch Rickey (1947), Walter O'Malley (1955) and Buzzie Bavasi (1959). Claire also captured the N.L. Baseball America Executive of the Year and UPI Co-Executive of the Year awards. Claire's work did not stop with the world title. After the 1988 season ended, Claire traded for Eddie Murray and signed free agent Willie Randolph. Mid-season trades in 1988 brought John Tudor and Ricky Horton to Los Angeles, and in July of 1989 he brought Kal Daniels and Lenny Harris over from Cincinnati. During and after the 1987 season Tim Belcher, Alfredo Griffin, Jay Howell, Mike Sharperson, Mike Davis and John Shelby joined the Dodgers. Claire also signed free agents Rick Dempsey, Kirk Gibson and Mickey Hatcher. Appointed Executive Vice President of the Dodgers in October, 1982, Claire gained player personnel responsibilities on April 8, 1987. Prior to assuming the player personnel duties, Claire was responsible for the day-to-day operation of the team. He is the first executive vice president of the Dodgers since Peter O'Malley served in that capacity during the 1969 and 1970 seasons. Claire has been with the Dodgers since July, 1969, when he joined the team as director of publicity. He was appointed vice president, public relations and promotions in February, 1975. In the period Claire directed the Dodgers' public relations and marketing departments, the team received the Diogenes Award for ethics in marketing by the Sales and Marketing Executives Association of Los Angeles and also was saluted for achievements in marketing by Major League Baseball and by the Advertising Club of Los Angeles. Claire received the Robert O. Fishel Award in 1986, an award presented annually to a Major League Baseball executive for public relations excellence.

Prior to joining the Dodgers, Claire spent 12 years in the newspaper field as a sports editor, columnist and baseball writer with the Long Beach Press Telegram, the Pomona Progress Bulletin and the Whittier News. Claire graduated from San Jose State College in 1957 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in journalism. He also holds an Associate of Arts degree from Mt. San Antonio College and has been honored by the college as an outstanding alumnus. Claire attended El Camino College and in January, 1989 was named the college's first alumnus of the year. In January of 1990, Claire received the Award of Honor from the American Baseball Coaches Association. Claire has served Major League Baseball as a member of the Board of Directors of the Promotion Corporation and also as a member of the broadcast advisory group.

TOMMY HAWKINS

Vice President, Communications, begins his third year overseeing the community services, marketing, publicity and publications departments. A former public relations executive, television-radio sportscaster, talk show host and 10-year player in the National Basketball Association, Hawkins was named Dodgers' Vice President, Communications on Oct. 28, 1987. Prior to his appointment, he was co-host of the "Mid-Morning Los Angeles" television show with Stephanie Edwards on KHJ-TV. Before that, Hawkins was a sports director for KABC Radio for 15 years, spent four years as host of KHJ-TV's "The Morning Show," two years as host of KABC-TV's "Daybreak L.A." show and four years as a sportscaster for KNBC-TV. A two-time basketball All-America and captain at the University of Notre Dame in 1958-59, Hawkins went on to play four years with the Cincinnati Royals and six with the Los Angeles Lakers prior to his retirement in 1969. He served as the Lakers' player representative from 1967-69 and was a member of the NBA players' labor negotiation team. He is a founder and president of Athletes for a Better America, a community service project of professional and collegiate athletes, and is a member of the Board of Directors of the L.A. Sports Council. He has also worked with youth as chairman of the Youth Activities Division of the Greater Los Angeles Urban Coalition, as executive member of the Los Angeles Recreation and Park's department advisory board and a field representative for the President's Council on Physical Fitness and Sports. Hawkins earned a B.A. in sociology from Notre Dame and was a professor at Long Beach State in 1972-73, teaching "Mass Media and the History of the Black Athlete." He was a partner in Beverly Hills public relations and advertising firm Bishop, Hawkins & Associates from 1967-69. He has earned several awards, including a Golden Mike for his contribution to KNBC's 5 o'clock news team and was named to "Who's Who in America" in 1972-75. The Chicago native was inducted as a charter member in the state of Illinois basketball Hall of Fame in 1973.

MERRITT WILLEY

Vice President, Marketing, has been the Dodgers' Vice President, Marketing since Sept. 1, 1972. Prior to joining the Dodgers, Willey accumulated 26 years experience as an advertising, marketing and broadcasting executive. Willey previously held the position of vice president of Guild, Bascom and Bonfigli of San Francisco; vice president-manager of D'Arcy Advertising Co. in Los Angeles; vice president, public affairs, marketing and research, Lotus Theatre Corp. in Los Angeles and vice president, general manager of radio station KWKW in Los Angeles.

BOB GRAZIANO

Vice President, Finance, joined the Dodgers on January 1, 1986, as director of financial projects. Promoted to Vice President, Finance on Oct. 28, 1987 to oversee the Dodgers' accounting, data processing, human resources, stadium operation and ticket departments. Served as manager, financial services for WTC Air Freight in 1984-85. Was accounting supervisor and ticket manager for Los Angeles Olympic Organizing Committee in 1984. Was supervising senior accountant with Arthur Young Company from 1980-84. Graduated from USC summa cum laude in June, 1980, earning a Bachelor of Science degree in accounting.

DODGER MANAGEMENT STAFF (continued)CHARLIE BLANEY

Director, Minor League Operations, has served 23 years with the Dodgers, eight as general manager at Class A, AA and AAA levels and 13 as managing director of Dodgertown, prior to his current appointment in October, 1987.

ROY CAMPANELLA

Community Relations, rejoined his batterymate, Don Newcombe, on the Dodgers' Community Services team in November, 1978. He is the only Dodger in history to win the Most Valuable Player award more than once, winning in 1951, 1953 and 1955. Campanella was elected to the Hall of Fame in 1969. He was the Dodgers' starting catcher from 1949-57, compiling a major league average of .276 with 242 career home runs. He is a member of the board of directors of the Baseball Hall of Fame and a member of the Old Timers Voting Committee for the Baseball Hall of Fame. He received the degree of Doctor of Humane Letters from Long Island University, November 2, 1986.

BILL DeLURY

Traveling Secretary, broke in with the Dodgers in 1950. Upon graduation from St. Leonard Academy, DeLury began work as an office clerk. He moved up to work in the minor league department after the service called him in 1956 and upon his discharge in 1959. DeLury joined the ticket office staff in 1964. In 1979, he was named the Dodgers' traveling secretary. He coordinates team travel and hotels for the Dodgers. He received the Good Guy award for 1989 from the local chapter of the BBWAA.

SANTIAGO FERNANDEZ

Assistant Secretary and General Counsel, joined the Dodgers in 1984, after working as an associate with the law firm of Latham & Watkins since 1980. Fernandez graduated magna cum laude from UCLA in 1976, with a Bachelor of Arts degree in sociology and political science. He received his Juris Doctor in 1980 from the University of California, Hastings College of Law and was elected to the Order of the Coif. He is an active member of the California State Bar, the American Bar Association and the L.A. County Bar Association.

KEN HASEMANN

Controller, came to the Dodgers in March, 1962 after working as senior accountant for Peat, Marwick, Mitchell and Company. He was named to his present position in January, 1967. Hasemann received his B.S. degree at Bradley University.

IKE IKUHARA

Assistant to the President, has been a member of the Dodgers' organization since 1965. Before being named to his present position in January, 1982, Ikuhara worked in the minor league, scouting, accounting, ticket, concession and public relations departments. He obtained a Bachelor of Science degree in 1959 from Waseda University in Tokyo, Japan and also majored in law. Ikuhara has written two books, both of which were published in Japan. The title of his first book is "A Real Pro-Becoming a Major Leaguer" and his recent work is titled "Dodger Way-A Winning Tradition."

PAUL KALIL

Assistant Director, Marketing and Promotions, was named to his present position in January, 1989. He began in the publicity department in May, 1982. Following that season, he was named to produce Dodger Diamond Vision, while also handling radio and television advertising and marketing collateral. Kalil annually produces and directs the video board shows at the Super Bowl for the NFL. He graduated from USC in 1982.

JAY LUCAS

Assistant Director, Publicity, joined the Dodgers in July, 1988. Lucas assists Mike Williams with day-to-day publicity responsibilities. He served as Director of Media Relations/Athletics for five years at UC Santa Barbara. Lucas was a Public Relations Assistant for three years with the Los Angeles Lakers and served as an assistant for the California Angels in 1982. Lucas graduated from Chico State in 1981.

MIKE MULARKY

Director, Data Processing, joined the Dodgers in August, 1982 as a systems analyst, was promoted to data processing manager, and was named to his current position in October, 1987. He has been active in teaching data processing at Los Angeles Mission College. Mularky earned his B.S. degree from Cal State Northridge and is currently enrolled in an M.B.A. program at California State University, Northridge.

WALTER NASH

Director, Ticket Department and Stadium Club, joined the Dodger organization in 1962 as internal auditor and became director of the ticket department in 1964. Prior to that he worked as an auditor for Travelers Insurance (1952-62). Nash is a graduate of Rider College with a B.A. degree in accounting. He is a member of the Lions Club of Los Angeles.

DON NEWCOMBE

Director, Community Relations, is actively involved in the community for the Dodgers. Newcombe, who also speaks on alcoholism across the United States, was baseball's first winner of the Cy Young Award in 1956 and also was selected the National League's Most Valuable Player that season. He won 149 games during his 10 years in the majors - eight with the Dodgers. Newcombe was named N.L. Rookie of the Year in 1949 when he was 17-8. He joined the Dodger front office in 1970.

TERRY REYNOLDS

Assistant Director, Scouting, has been in his current position since September, 1988. He is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater and he has a master's degree from Siena Heights (MI) College and Ohio University. Reynolds joined the Dodgers in 1978 as an administrative assistant at Albuquerque. He moved to the Astros' Daytona Beach club in 1979 and rejoined the Dodgers in 1980, as general manager of their new Vero Beach team. He was named Director of Dodgertown in 1987.

BRENT SHYER

Director, Publications and Broadcasting Coordinator, joined the Dodgers in February, 1988, after serving as sports information director at Cal Poly Pomona for nine years. He graduated from CPP magna cum laude in 1979. Shyer served as publicity director for Olympic baseball at Dodger Stadium in 1984. He is responsible for Dodgers Magazine, Dodgers Yearbook, Line Drives, Alumni News and co-edits the media guide with the publicity department. Shyer serves as the liaison with the Commissioner's office regarding various broadcasting issues.

BOB SMITH

Director, Stadium Operations, joined the Dodgers in 1962 working in stadium operations for Allied Consolidated Services. He was named to head up Dodger operations in 1968. A Tennessee native, Smith oversees the entire 300 acres of beautiful Dodger Stadium.

BARRY STOCKHAMER

Director, Marketing and Promotions, has been with the Dodgers since May, 1969. He directs sales/marketing efforts, promotional activities, community services and special events. A graduate of UC Irvine.

IRENE TANJI

Director, Human Resources and Administration, has been with the Dodgers since April, 1958. She was responsible for player and front office payroll until November, 1987 when she was named to her present position. Currently, she manages administrative services and personnel functions, and also administers employee benefit plans for front office and field personnel. Graduate of Woodbury College.

BEN WADE

Director, Scouting, has spent 31 years in the Dodger organization. He played for the Dodgers for six years and then turned to scouting for 10 years before earning the promotion to scouting director in 1973. Wade scouted for the New York Mets prior to joining the Dodgers. He spent 20 years in professional baseball, four in the majors. In one of Wade's major league wins in 1952, he hit two home runs off Warren Spahn.

MIKE WILLIAMS

Director, Publicity, is in his third season with the Dodgers. Williams served as director of marketing, sales promotion manager and marketing analyst seven years with the Los Angeles Turf Club, Inc. Williams was an NCAA Division III baseball All-America at Claremont (CA) Men's College and team captain in 1980 and 1981. In 1989, he was named to CMC's "Wall of Fame" for recognition as a scholar athlete. He is a member of the San Marino City Club.

DODGER STADIUM INFORMATION

The 1990 Centennial season will mark the 29th year in beautiful Dodger Stadium for the Los Angeles Dodgers. It all began on April 10, 1962 when the Dodgers opened the stadium gates. The Dodgers celebrated their first win on April 11 over the Reds.

During the past 28 years, over 73 million fans have watched games at Dodger Stadium, an average of more than 2.6 million. The Dodgers spent their first four seasons in L.A. at the Memorial Coliseum, where they attracted 7,974,738 fans, an average of 1,993,685. In their 32 years in Los Angeles, the Dodgers have drawn 81,073,381 fans, an average of 2,533,543.

A total of 2,755,184 fans viewed games at Dodger Stadium in the inaugural 1962 season.

In 1978, 3,347,845 fans saw the Dodgers play at Dodger Stadium, as they became the first team ever to hit the three million mark in attendance. The Dodgers did it a second time in 1980 as they attracted 3,249,287 fans and then set the all-time Major League season attendance mark in 1982 as they recorded a total of 3,608,881. They also hit three million in 1983 as they attracted 3,510,313 fans, in 1984 at 3,134,824, in 1985 at 3,264,593 and in 1986 at 3,023,208.

For their 10th Anniversary in Dodger Stadium, the Dodgers saluted two key figures in the construction of Dodger Stadium before their first home game in 1971.

Captain Emil Praeger designed Dodger Stadium and Jack Yount was the vice president and general manager of Vinnell, which handled the giant construction project.

Dodger Stadium is baseball's only privately-financed stadium since the construction of Yankee Stadium in 1923.

Dodger Stadium was a difficult construction site on which to build because of a network of washes, gullies and gulches interlaced with hills and twisting roads. Elevations in the area ranged from 400 to 700 feet above sea level. To compensate for this rough terrain, more than 8,000,000 cubic yards of earth were moved to reshape the area. Some 21,000 precast concrete units, weighing up to 32 tons, were lifted into the stadium's structural framework.

By employing the cantilever theory, every seat in the column-free stadium affords the spectator a completely unobstructed view of the symmetrical playing field. With seven front rows and no grandstand deeper than 20-plus rows, fans are presented an excellent opportunity to view the action.

The various levels are color coordinated (Yellow-Field, Orange-Loge, Blue-Reserved and Red-General Admission) to correspond with the terraced parking levels. A below-ground level provides a "Players' eye view" from dugout box seats.

Two gigantic electronic installations – the scoreboard in right field and the Dodger Diamond Vision (see separate section) full-color video display system behind the Left Field Pavilion – add to the entertainment fans enjoy.

Dodger Stadium was the home of the 1984 Olympic Games baseball competition. At that time, it marked baseball's greatest involvement in the Olympics as eight teams competed in the tournament with Japan defeating the United States in the finals.

Eight World Series have been played at Dodger Stadium (1963, '65, '66, '74, '77, '78, '81 and '88).

Pope John Paul II celebrated Mass at Dodger Stadium on September 16, 1987.

The seating capacity is 56,000 and parking is available for 16,000 autos on 21 terraced lots adjacent to and at about the same elevations as the five different seating levels on the 300-acre site.

It all adds up to baseball's finest – and most beautiful – stadium.

DODGER DIAMOND VISION

Dodger Diamond Vision was the first full-color matrix board in the world, making its debut at the All-Star Game at Dodger Stadium on July 8, 1980. The system, built by Mitsubishi Electric Corporation of Japan, operates on the same principle as a home color television set. A broadcast-quality video control room located in the press box operates the video board. Three cameras and a video control room are used to show replays and highlights of game action, produce original entertainment material and generate statistical information and news about the Dodgers and other teams around the majors. The Diamond Vision screen is 35 feet wide by 25 feet high and consists of 38,000 red, green and blue lights, which draw only two watts per tube (1/10th of a comparable incandescent lamp).

THE TOP 100 HOME ATTENDANCE MARKS

The Los Angeles Dodgers drew 2,944,653 fans in 81 home dates during the 1989 season for the 16th highest attendance figure in Major League history. The Dodgers have reached the three million mark seven times. The Dodgers established the record in 1982 at 3,608,881 fans and they also hit the three million total in 1978 at 3,347,845 fans, 3,249,287 in 1980, 3,510,313 in 1983, 3,134,824 in 1984, 3,264,593 in 1985 and 3,023,208 in 1986. The Dodgers became the first team to play before five million fans total – home and road – in 1978 as the total reached 5,494,204. The Dodgers have since accomplished this figure eight more times as they attracted a record 5,859,072 fans in 1982 as well as 5,747,526 in 1983, 5,311,656 in 1980, 5,069,383 in 1984, 5,205,941 in 1985, 5,099,954 in 1986, 5,135,610 in 1988 and 5,113,671 last season. The Dodgers have averaged more than 2.5 million fans a season since coming to Los Angeles in 1958. The Dodgers have reached the two million mark 25 times – the most by any Major League team. The Dodgers hit the two million mark for the 17th straight season (1973-89). The Dodgers hit the million mark in 22 dates in 1981, the two million mark in 46 dates in 1982 and the three million mark in 67 dates in 1982 – all three establishing Major League records. ALL-STAR GAME AT DODGER STADIUM

The 1980 All-Star Game marked the first and only time the game has been played at Dodger Stadium. The game attracted 56,088 on July 8th.

DODGERS HAVE DRAWN 90,000 FOUR TIMES

The Los Angeles Dodgers hold the Major League record for the largest crowd to see a baseball game of 93,103 set on May 7, 1959. The fans paid tribute to Roy Campanella, who was injured in an automobile accident, and saw the Dodgers play an exhibition game with the New York Yankees at the Los Angeles Coliseum. The Dodgers drew three consecutive 90,000-plus crowds for the 1959 World Series games with the Chicago White Sox at the Los Angeles Coliseum. The Dodgers set the World Series attendance record for a game in the third game on Tuesday, Oct. 6, as they attracted 92,706 fans. The other two crowds were 92,394 on Sunday, Oct. 4 and 92,650 on Monday, October 5.

CLUBHOUSE: Both the Dodgers and visiting team clubhouses are located on level one (dugout level). The Dodger dugout is located on the third base side. Only credentialed media with clubhouse access will be admitted. The training room is closed to everyone except players and Dodger officials.

CREDENTIALS: Credentials will be issued only to legitimate media. Season credentials will be issued only to those news agencies that cover the Dodgers on a daily basis. Requests for all regular season Dodger home games should be made in writing on company letterhead from the sports editor-producer to Mike Williams, Director of Publicity. All requests should be received 24 hours in advance. Credentials can be picked up at the will call window in parking lot 5. Proper identification is required. Credentials must be displayed at all times. No autographs permitted on the field or in the clubhouse to credentialed media.

ELEVATORS: Located directly behind home plate. Escalators are available from the club level (main press box). If you take the escalators, go two levels to the field level and make a left turn. First exit door on your left will lead you to one flight of stairs down to the Dodger clubhouse.

FIELD: Only credentialed media with field access will be allowed onto the field. All media must clear the field 30 minutes prior to game time.

GAME NOTES: Game notes and statistics will be available in the main press box prior to game time. Quotes, statistics and play-by-play sheets will be available after the game.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Photographers are not allowed on the field during the game at any time. Photo wells are located at each end of the home and visiting dugouts. Photo locations in the main press box are assigned for the season. Special arrangements for use of the press box level positions can be made through the publicity office.

PRESS BOX: The main press box is located on level 5 (club level) directly behind home plate. Media may enter through parking lots A, B and 5. The media dining area, located in the main press box, is open two hours prior to game time. Beverages and snacks are available after the game.

TELEPHONES: Five charge-a-call phones are located in the main press box.

TICKETS: Media complimentary tickets must be requested by 2 p.m. for a night game and 24 hours in advance for a day game, subject to availability. Tickets can be picked up at the will call window in parking lot 5. Proper identification is required. The window opens two hours prior to the game.

VIN SCULLY, Broadcaster, is a master of the English language and Dodger baseball. Once teamed with Red Barber on the Dodgers' broadcasting team, Scully joined his counterpart in the broadcast wing of Baseball's Hall of Fame in 1982, as he was selected the Ford C. Frick Award winner. Also, had his star placed on Hollywood's Walk of Fame in 1982. A graduate of Fordham University, Scully has covered many of baseball's thrilling episodes. He is the only announcer to cover two perfect games and 13 no-hitters. Other thrilling moments include the 18 strikeouts by Sandy Koufax in two different games; the four-game sweep over the Yankees in the 1963 World Series; the Dodgers' playoff win in 1959 over the Braves; Maury Wills' 104 steals in 1962; Dick Nen's pinch homer which beat the St. Louis Cardinals down the stretch in 1963; the Yankee - Dodger exhibition game which played to 93,103 in the Coliseum in honoring Roy Campanella; Don Larsen's perfect game in the fifth game of the 1956 World Series; Hank Aaron's 715th homerun; Don Drysdale's 58 scoreless innings and Orel Hershisier's 59 consecutive scoreless innings streak. Scully has done 11 World Series and 6 All-Star Games for television. He worked for NBC for 7 years covering baseball and golf. Dodger fans proved their admiration of Scully in 1976 when they voted him "Most Memorable Personality" in Los Angeles Dodgers baseball history. Scully won the "Look" Magazine Award for his outstanding coverage of the 1959

World Series. Scully has been named the outstanding sportscaster in the nation four times by the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association. Scully was named the California Sportscaster of the Year for 1989, the 18th time he has been named California's top sports broadcaster. Scully was named "Broadcaster of the Year" in 1984 by the Southern California Broadcasters Association and American Sportscasters Association "Sportscaster of the Year" in 1985. He received the "Ronald Reagan Media Award" from the United States Sports Academy on Feb. 27, 1987.

DON DRYSDALE, Broadcaster, Hall of Fame pitcher for Dodgers from 1956-69. He has served as broadcaster for the past 20 years, including time with Montreal (1970-71), Texas (1972), California (1973-79, 81), the Chicago White Sox (1982-87) and 10 years for ABC-TV. Drysdale was elected to Baseball's Hall of Fame on Aug. 12, 1984. He compiled a 209-167 lifetime record and 2.95 ERA. He played in five World Series and was a member of world championship teams in 1959, 1963 and 1965. Drysdale was selected to 10 National League All-Star teams and set a major league record, which was broken in 1988 by Dodger Orel Hershisier, by pitching six consecutive shutouts and 58 consecutive scoreless innings in 1968. His finest season was 1962, when he was 25-9 with a 2.83 ERA and had 232 strikeouts in 314.1 innings, earning National League Cy Young Award and The Sporting

RADIO BROADCASTS: All Dodger games may be heard over the Dodger radio network. Vin Scully, Don Drysdale and Ross Porter call all the action over KABC (790 AM). Jaime Jarrin and Rene Cardenas handle the play-by-play for all games in Spanish on KWKW (1330 AM). Dave Van de Walker directs the KABC Dodger radio network.

News Major League Pitcher of the Year honors. He ranks among top Dodgers in every pitching category, and his uniform number "53" was retired by the Dodgers on July 1, 1984, one of only eight numbers ever retired by the Dodgers.

ROSS PORTER, Broadcaster, begins his 14th year on the Dodger radio-TV team. On August 23rd last season, his solo broadcast of the 22-inning game between the Dodgers and Expos established a major league record for the longest consecutive play-by-play by one announcer. Porter worked the six hour and 14 minute game alone in Montreal. Since the first broadcast of a major league baseball game in 1922, there have been only six games longer than 22 innings. Porter's broadcast was the only time one person has announced that many innings. Porter broadcast the 1977 and 1978 World Series on CBS Radio to a worldwide network of more than 600 stations, the 1988 World Series for Dodger flagship station KABC, and also announced the 1984 National League Championship series for the CBS Radio network. Prior to joining the Dodgers, Porter spent 10 years as a sportscaster for KNBC-TV in Los Angeles, winning many honors for his nightly programs, including an Emmy. A play-by-play announcer since he was 14, Porter is a graduate of the University of Oklahoma. He broadcast NFL games for NBC-TV for seven years, and is now the radio-TV voice of UNLV basketball and football. Porter also has one of the 21 votes to determine the winner of the Jim Thorpe Award, given annually to the top defensive back in college football.

Rene Cardenas and Jaime Jarrin

JAIME JARRIN, Broadcaster, is regarded as the number one Spanish sports announcer in the United States. Jarrin has been covering the Dodgers since 1959 and has been the number one man in the booth since 1973. He was the first Latin American to win The Golden Mike Award, gaining the honor in 1970 and 1971. Jarrin was in charge of all Spanish radio coverage and production of the 23rd Olympic Games in Los Angeles in 1984. Jarrin can also be found traveling the globe broadcasting world championship boxing matches and baseball series, having broadcast more than 25 world championship boxing matches for radio and television stations throughout Latin America. Jarrin is vice president, News and Sports, Lotus Broadcasting Corp. whose station KWKW is the flagship station of the Dodgers' Spanish radio network. Jarrin studied philosophy, letters, journalism and broadcasting at Central University of Ecuador in Quito.

RENE CARDENAS, Broadcaster, is in his 13th year in the Dodgers' Spanish broadcast booth. This is his second tour of duty. Cardenas, was the pioneer on the Dodgers' Spanish broadcasts from 1958-61 and rejoined the club in 1982. Cardenas, left the Dodgers after the 1961 season to become the director of the Spanish network and all broadcast operations for the Astrodome. After 15 years handling their Spanish broadcasts, Cardenas, returned to his native Managua, Nicaragua, where he worked in radio and television. He announced baseball and covered various championship boxing matches throughout the world. Due to political unrest in Nicaragua in 1979, Cardenas and his wife, Jilma, were forced to flee the country and returned to Houston. In 1981, Cardenas, worked the Spanish broadcast schedule for the Texas Rangers, while serving as program manager for a Houston Spanish radio station, a position he held until rejoining the Dodgers. In 1988, Cardenas "went national" for the World Series. In addition to the regular Dodger broadcast, Cardenas was tapped by Univision to do a series of interviews with players, which was broadcast over Univision National Network of Spanish language TV stations. In addition, Cardenas added to his schedule one more broadcast activity — he became co-host of "Arriba Dodgers" program on KMEX-TV in Los Angeles, in 1987.

REMEMBER THIS BIG DODGER INNING? (15 RUNS)

The Dodgers scored 15 runs against the Cincinnati Reds on May 21, 1952 in the first inning and set the following record - most runs in an inning (15), most runs scored in the first inning (15), most runs scored with two out (12), most batters to bat in one inning (21) and most batters to reach base safely in a row (19). Do you remember the inning? This is how it went: Billy Cox grounded out. Pee Wee Reese walked. Duke Snider homered to right. Jackie Robinson doubled to left. Andy Pafko walked. George Shuba singled Robinson home and Pafko went second. Pitcher Ewell Blackwell was replaced by Bud Byerly, Pafko was thrown out trying to steal third and Shuba went to second. Gil Hodges walked. Rube Walker singled home Shuba. Chris Van Cuyk singled Hodges home. Cox singled home Walker. Reese singled home Van Cuyk to make it 7-0. Byerly was replaced by Herm Wehmeier for the Reds. Snider walked to load the bases. Robinson was hit by a pitch, scoring Cox. Pafko singled home Reese and Snider. Frank Smith relieved Wehmeier with the score 10-0. Shuba walked to load the bases again. Hodges walked to force in Robinson. Walker singled home Pafko and Shuba. Van Cuyk singled in 14th run (Hodges) of the inning. Cox was hit by a pitch to load the bases. Reese walked forcing in run number 15 (Walker). Snider struck out. (15 Runs, 10 Hits, 7 Walks, 2 Hit by Pitch, 3 Left on Base.)

RULES OF INTEREST

Player Limits: 40 until opening day, when the number must be reduced to 25 or a minimum of 24 until September 1, when it again becomes 40.

Determining Batting Average: Divide the number of at-bats into the number of hits.

Determining an Earned Run Average: Multiply the number of earned runs by nine; take the number and divide it by the number of innings pitched.

Determining Slugging Percentage: Divide the total bases of all safe hits by the total times at bat (At-bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitcher, or times awarded first base because of interference or obstruction).

Determining Fielding Average: Divide the total putouts and assists by the total number of putouts, assists and errors.

Determining Percentage of Game Won and Lost: Divide the number of games won by the total games won and lost.

Consecutive Hitting Streaks: A consecutive hitting streak shall not be terminated if the plate appearance results in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. A sacrifice fly shall terminate the streak.

Consecutive-Game Hitting Streaks: A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a base on balls, hit baseman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

Consecutive-Game Playing Streak: A consecutive-game playing streak shall be extended if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance only shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

Trading Regulations: Players are available on waivers in reverse order of standings, at the time waivers expire, if more than 30 days after the start of the season; otherwise in reverse order of standings at close of the preceding season.

Trading Deadline: The trading deadline is July 31. Waivers are required for any inter- or intra- Major League assignment during the period beginning Aug. 1 and ending at 5 p.m. (East Coast time) the day after the end of the season. During the other 10 months of the year, no waivers are needed. The waiver periods are: November 11 to 30th day of season; 31st day of season to July 31; and Aug. 1 to November 10.

Determining the Magic Number: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

Game Winning Hit: The hit that gives your team a higher final run total than your opponent.

Doctored Bat: A batter is out for illegal action when he uses or attempts to use a bat that, in the umpire's judgement, has been altered or tampered with in such a way to improve the distance factor or cause an unusual reaction on the baseball. This includes bats that are filled, flat-surfaced, nailed, hollowed, grooved or covered with a substance such as paraffin, wax, etc. No advancement on the bases will be allowed and any out or outs made during a play shall stand. In addition to being called out, the player shall be ejected from the game and may be subject to additional penalties as determined by his League President. (Rule 6.06d).

Night Game: Any game that starts at 6 p.m. or after.

QUALIFYING MARKS

Qualification for Batting Championship: Highest batting average and 502 or more plate appearances.

Qualification for Pitching Championship: Lowest ERA and 162 or more innings pitched.

Qualifications for a "Rookie": Not more than 45 days on a major league roster between opening day and Sept. 1, and has not exceeded 130 official at-bats (or 50 innings pitched).

Qualifications for a Save: Credit a pitcher with a save when: 1. He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and 2. He is not the winning pitcher, and 3. He qualifies under one of the following conditions: (a) He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or (b) He enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat or on deck (that is, the potential tying run is either already on base or is one of the first two batsmen he faces), or (c) He pitches effectively for at least three innings. No more than one save may be credited in each game.

The Dodgers celebrate their 42nd anniversary at Dodgertown in Vero Beach, FL, this spring.

It was in 1948 that the Dodgers set up camp in Vero Beach, at the invitation of local businessman Bud Holman, after whom Holman Stadium is named.

Holman's brainstorm came after the United States government turned over a naval air station to the city of Vero Beach following World War II.

Vero Beach needed a tenant for the facility and the Dodgers were looking for a spring home after leading a nomad existence.

In the spring of 1948, the former naval air station grounds and barracks were invaded by 600 players in the Dodger organization.

The players who spent that long ago spring at Dodgertown, as it came to be known almost from the outset, would not recognize the place today.

Replacing the old barracks is a modern 90-unit villa. Also, a 23,000 square foot administration building was constructed on the site of the former headquarters building in 1974. The building includes a major league clubhouse, minor league clubhouse, medical department, dining room and kitchen, main lobby, canteen, recording studio, photo dark room, interview room, stadium club lounge, press working area, two trainers' rooms, two equipment rooms and two laundry rooms.

There are four practice fields and a row of outdoor batting cages, in addition to Holman Stadium, dedicated in 1953, where the Dodgers play their exhibition games. The stadium has a seating capacity of 6,500.

This spring, Dodgertown unveiled a newly constructed 15,000 square foot multi-purpose building housing four indoor batting tunnels (nighttime lighting available), an exercise room containing the latest in training equipment, a video room to be used by Dodger instructors for a teaching area and baseball administrative offices for Dodger executives during spring training. These offices will then be converted into meeting rooms for the conference center the rest of the year.

Even the recreation facilities at Dodgertown have undergone radical change since that initial spring.

Two golf courses - an 18-holer called Dodger Pines Country Club and a nine-hole layout called Dodgertown Golf Club - outline the complex. The Pines clubhouse is complete with locker rooms, dining room and pro shop.

Dodger personnel also have the use of a swimming pool, four all-weather tennis courts and a theater in which different movies are shown each night.

Dodgertown, the only privately owned training camp in the country, also includes a 70-acre citrus grove, 45 residences on the golf course perimeter and a conference center.

Since 1965, the Dodgers have purchased 450 acres from the city of Vero Beach.

Besides Dodger spring training, Dodgertown is a conference center managed by Harrison Conference Centers.

The conference center is designed to provide the proper environment for business meetings and the most intensive learning objectives. There are 20 specially-designed meeting rooms, featuring the latest in audio visual equipment. The recreation program includes golf, tennis, baseball, swimming, basketball, volleyball and jogging trails.

Dodgertown accommodates up to 180 conferees. The facility has more than 250 employees.

Dodgertown has been utilized by numerous NFL teams to prepare for postseason games. The Dodgers also hold a rookie camp at Vero Beach prior to the newly drafted players reporting to their assigned teams.

Dodgertown also provides the setting for three adult fantasy baseball camps held throughout the year featuring instruction by former major leaguers.

Holman Stadium also is the summer home of the Vero Beach Dodgers of the Class A Florida State League, who are celebrating their 10th anniversary at Dodgertown this season. In its first season in 1980, the franchise's attendance for 71 home games was 80,063, plus another 3,325 for three play-off games – a remarkable total because Vero Beach (population 17,033) is one of the smallest towns in America with a professional baseball club. The Dodgers broke the record in 1981 as they attracted 91,732 fans in 67 dates.
